Snow Storm Isolates Cheyenne, Hits Denver

5 Inches At Colo. Capital

DENVER (UPI)—A vicious winter storm smashed Colorado and Wyoming today with up to 17 inches of wind-driven wet snow and punishing drops in temperatures.

Cheyenne, Wyo., was isolated. Denver's International Airport was closed for almost two hours.

FOUR PERISH

The storm, reaching blizzard and near blizzard proportions, seriously curtailed highway traffic in Wyoming and stopped or slowed traffic in parts of Colorado.

At least four persons perished in storm-caused traffic accidents. Another was electrocued and a bus carrying children home from Etheten, Wyo., was bogged down in snow for a short while last night. Highway crews freed the bus and the children reached their destinations safetly.

MINERS STRANDED

Ninety-five workers at the Atlantic City iron ore mine near Lander, Wyo., were stranded. Officials hoped to free them during the day.

Lander reported 17 inches of snow —the most in the two states. Seven inches was reported on Squaw Pass and six inches was measured at Fraser, Estes Park and Palmer Lake, all in Colorado. Denver had more than a five-inch fall.

CHEYENNE ISOLATED

The Wyoming state high patrol said all roads in and out of Cheyenne were closed.

The Colorado state patrol said traffic was piled up for four miles in Clear Creek Canyon, just west of Denver.

The temperatures dipped to 16 degrees at Big Piney, Wyo., early today, and fell to 20 degrees at Fraser, Colo. The drop was sharp from Indian summer-like readings in the 70's and 80's yesterday.

Power was out in the Denver area for as long as five hours. Trees, still bearing leaves, were heavy with snow. Branches snapped like pistol shots and crashed to the ground and across power lines.

Mother, Tots In Screaming Death Plunge

NEW YORK (AP) — An African diplomat's screaming wife threw their two children from an 18th-floor window today and then followed them to death in a courtyard below. Police said it looked like "a bloody battlefield."

Police identified the victims as Mrs. Olive M. Mwalilino, 24, and her children, Kotoki, a one-year-old boy, and Janet, a girl three months old.

The woman's husband is an official of the Malawi delegation to the United Nations, police said.

Her husband is G. T. K. Mwalilino, a second secretary of Malawi's mission to the U.N.

A television antenna installer, Gerald Cristodero, working on a nearby roof, told police he saw the woman throw the children to their death, then follow them.

Cristodero, 24, said the woman stood at the window, screaming at the top of her voice. She threw something out.

He said he could not tell what was thrown, but a few seconds later the woman threw

Blaze On Frustuck Avenue Causes Damage Of $10,000

Fire of undetermined cause has struck a Fairfax home for the fourth consecutive day.

Fairfax firefighters were called to a residence at 239 Frustuck Avenue, rented by Kenneth Richardson, at 2:05 a.m. today to quell a fire that spread through the underpinnings of the home.

Fire Chief Charles M. Thornton said the two-bedroom frame house was a total loss and estimated damage at between $8,000 and $10,000. Fire spread to trees surrounding the house and burned several of them before it was controlled.

Richardson told firemen the blaze broke out at the front entrance to the hillside home, and he tried to fight it before going to a neighbor's house to call the fire department.

There was no telephone in the house. Electricity had been disconnected Oct. 4, Chief Thornton said.

Chief Thornton planned to question Richardson further today regarding source of the blaze. He said its cause could not yet be determined.

Firemen brought the fire under control 30 minutes after the alarm but remained on the scene until 6:30 a.m. working on the burned out area of the home.

Thornton today estimated damage at $18,000 to $20,000 in a fire yesterday at 7 Forrest Terrace, plus an additional $5,000 damage to furnishings.

Fire Tuesday largely destroyed a home at 102 Forrest Avenue. It and yesterday's blaze are believed to have started from lighted cigarettes, Thornton said.

On Monday, an unoccupied home at 99 Redwood Road burned to the ground. No cause was pinpointed for it.

Record Bomb Raids Pound North Viets

COMBINED AP & UPI

The U.S. Military Command today reported a record number of bombing missions against North Viet Nam and threatened to resume bombing of the eastern end of the demilitarized zone unless the Communists stop infiltrating there.

U.S. planes flew 173 bombing missions over the Communist north yesterday, two more than the previous record on Sept. 11. No planes were reported lost yesterday but an Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down today 70 miles northwest of Vinh, the 399th loss reported for the air war against the north. A helicopter rescued the pilot.

LBJ Hints For Russ Visit To Seek Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is holding open the possibility that the Soviet Union may play an active role in ending the war in Viet Nam, even to the point of Kremlin leaders visiting the U.S.

At a news conference yesterday he spoke optimistically about improved relations with the U.S.S.R. generally and, significantly, appeared to include the Soviet Union among nations seeking peace.

All the while Johnson emphasized that the United States will not withdraw from the conflict — or even pause militarily — unless "the enemy" does the same.

And he did not forget the political wars at home, salting the 40-minute session in the White House East Room with criticism of Republicans.

"There are only two governments in the world that now appear opposed to ending the war and achieving the peace," Johnson said. He did not name the two, but evidently he referred to Communist China and North Viet Nam.

Last Monday, Johnson conferred on Viet Nam and other topics for two hours with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. Yesterday, the President called the session fruitful and said he believes "it will be productive."

The President said he had told Gromyko the United States "would welcome a visit by the

Negro Teen-Ager Killed By Police

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A police officer shot and killed a 15-year-old Negro boy with a blast from a shotgun today after a freeway chase they said exceeded 100 miles per hour.

Officer Thomas McNeven said he fired at Elmo Jerry Birkley of south Los Angeles, as the latter began to leap from a stolen car and reached toward his waistband as if for a weapon.

Officers said Birkley had no gun, but they did find a hunting knife near the car.

Jurist Orders Powell's Arrest

NEW YORK (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Wilfred A. Waltemade today ordered the arrest of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell for civil contempt "when the Congress is in recess."

Waltemade based his order on a finding by another judge that Powell was guilty of civil contempt for his willful failure to answer a Dec. 15, 1965, subpoena in proceedings connected with the collection of $164,000 in defamation judgments against the Harlem legislator.

It was the second arrest order made against Powell. The first was in June 1964.

Cancer Cause Tracked Down In Cigarettes

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A Texas scientist has isolated a major cancer-causing element in cigarette smoke, a member of the U.S. Surgeon General's Advisory Committee says.

Dr. Charles A. LeMaistre, University of Texas vice chancellor for health affairs, told an organizational meeting for the Texas Interagency Council on Smoking and Health yesterday that "once an element is isolated, there is no problem eliminating it."

LeMaistre spoke guardedly about "this breakthrough," and after learning that newsmen were present at the meeting, tried to play it down.

He declined to elaborate because he said he would be "betraying the confidence of the investigator." He said the discovery would be published in a scientific publication "in about 10 days," later postponing this deadline "perhaps as long as six months."

The only reason he brought the matter up, he said, was to warn those at the meeting not to get too excited when the discovery is published. There still are serious illnesses such as emphysema and chronic bronchitis that are caused by cigarette smoking, he said.

Sheppard's Retrial Set In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—The retrial of the Sheppard murder case will open in Cleveland on Monday, Oct. 24, Judge Francis J. Talty ruled today.

He denied a defense motion for change of venue, but granted a request to delay the trial of Samuel H. Sheppard from Oct. 18 as previously announced.

Arsonist Stayed Mum About Deadly Grudges

By JOHN F. KEARNEY

Twenty armed special service prison officers continued around-the-clock watch today on the homes of a Marin County Superior Court judge, an attorney and others as the dragnet widened for a missing Marin arsonist.

Meanwhile at Vacaville Medical Facility, the men responsible for passing Malcolm R. Schlette as mentally fit for release Monday on parole talked about the hunted man.

"If he had murder on his mind during the 90-day observation period, he kept his mouth tight shut about it," said Dr. Lester Pope, head of the facility.

"He did, however, indicate paranoid tendencies. He believed everyone was against him and was suspicious of everyone with whom he came into contact."

Why, then was the release approved of the 52-year-old man believed now by authorities to be bent on killing those involved in his 1955 arrest and 20-year sentence for arson?

Said Pope: "A great many prisoners who pass through our hands bear grudges against the law people who put them in jail. The psychiatrists who examined Schlette did not think this very unusual for a person with his character deficiency. He was not listed as psychotic."

Pope said that the arsonist was included in groups of prisoners encouraged to talk about themselves. "He did not mention anything about physical revenge," said Pope.

Since disappearing Monday—the day of his release from Vacaville, where he had been sent for observation before parole—Schlette has been sought throughout the state.

The State Department of Corrections sent special service officers to guard the homes of two of the men the arsonist is believed to have threatened; Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court and William O. Weissich, who prosecuted Schlette as district attorney.

Also on the parolee's alleged revenge list, are Nick Giampoli, a former San Rafael police inspector; Charles Daniels, San Rafael insurance investigator; Marin Undersheriff Sidney Stinson, and Sheriff's Deputy William Christensen.

In Sacramento, Director of Corrections Walter Dunbar declared: "We are co-operating

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Employment Up

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Employment in California reached an all-time peak last month and unemployment decreased to its lowest level since October of 1962, state officials said Thursday. Last month 7,331,000 persons were employed in the state, an increase of 4.1 per cent over September of 1965. There were 309,000 unemployed, a drop of 42,000 from September of 1965.

Leaving Israel

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UPI)—More than 200,000 Jews have immigrated from Israel because of a "seve economic crisis there," an Arab League report said yesterday. The report said 40 per cent of the American and Canadian Jews who went to Israel to live eventually returned to their native country.

Ike's Birthday

Inez Toll Climbs

TAMPICO, Mexico (AP) — Mexico's death toll from Hurricane Inez rose to at least 65 today following the discovery of about 50 bodies in mud and flood waters of two villages northwest of Tampico.

Daring Raid

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Syrian commando terrorists crossed the Jordan-Israel border early today and wounded three members of an Israeli patrol, an official Israeli communique charged. Israeli officials said the attack by El Fatah extremists was the most daring raid to date in Israel's tense border dispute with her Arab neighbors.

Khan In Iran

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—President Ayub Khan of Pakistan arrived today for a four-day unofficial visit and talks with the Shah of Iran on the future of the Central Treaty Organization.

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — President Eamon De Valera spent his 84th birthday today at his desk.

Fatal Demotion

PARIS (AP) — It was too much for chef Alain Zick when his family's Paris restaurant lost its two-star rating, and he killed himself with a shotgun blast, his brother Remy said yesterday. The Guide Michelin gave no indication why it demoted the restaurant.

Wage Increases Justifies Fare Hikes Says PUC

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Wage increases granted Greyhound employees have justified fare increases asked by the bus line in California, said a state Public Utilities Commission engineer at a PUC hearing into the proposed 7 per cent fare increase.

Ora Phillips, the PUC staff witness, told a hearing examiner yesterday the proposed fare hike would not fully cover the wage increase.

Greyhound estimates the boost in rates would yield $1.8 million a year. It says the wage increases run $2.2 million a year, but that it is willing to absorb the $400,000 a year difference.

The line said with the proposed increase it would earn 5 per cent on its investment in California operations. It seeks fare increases for long distance California runs and its San Francisco Bay Area commute service.

School Fund Equalization Pitch Made

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A plan to equalize state and local financial contributions to California schools has been outlined to the State Board of Education.

The plan, informally presented yesterday, would cost between $350 million and $400 million above the present $1 billion a year spent by the state on education, said Ronald Cox, associate state superintendent of education.

The plan would bring the state's share of financing school costs up to 50 per cent, Cox said, from its present 38 per cent share.

Local property taxes pay for 57 per cent of present school costs with the balance coming from federal funds and miscellaneous revenues.

Ultimately if the board approves it, the plan will go to the 1967 session of the State Legislature.

Featured in the plan are better kindergarten programs for all children, smaller sized classes, and larger bonuses for unification of school districts.

Pentagon Not Shocked By Crack Jet Fatals

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says the accident rate of Navy and Air Force precision flying teams is "acceptable in relation to the achieved objectives."

This response was given by a Defense Department spokesman after two members of the Air Force Thunderbirds team were killed while practicing Wednesday over Nevada. Last month a member of the Navy's Blue Angels team was killed in a crash at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto.

Actor Clifton Webb Dies; Long Career

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Imperious dignity and an urbane, witty style were actor Clifton Webb's trademarks in a career that spanned singing as a child, dancing, Broadway, intimate comedies and countless movies.

Webb, 69, died last night of a heart attack at his home.

Webb's secretary, Helen Matthews, said she was with the actor when he died. She said he suffered for some time with a heart condition.

Webb was born in Indianapolis, Ind., and in recent years gave his birthdate as Nov. 19, 1896.

However, record books indicate the date may have been as early as 1893, which would have made him 72.

His real name was Webb Parmelee Hollenbeck. He seldom talked of his father and legend had it that his stage-struck mother left her husband when their son was 3 to enter show business.

Webb started on the stage as a child singer and aimed for a classical career, but one night he was waltzing with a dinner companion in a New York night club when he was spotted by a professional dancer, Bonnie Glass.

She proposed a partnership, and they began a dancing career at Murray's Roman Gardens in New York. Soon he was dancing in Broadway shows under the name of Clifton Webb, which he had chosen after a series of other names.

Webb's Broadway shows included "Oliver Twist," "Meet the Wife," "As Thousands Cheer" and "You Never Know."

Webb later shifted from musicals to drawing room comedies, including those written by his close friend Noel Coward, "Blithe Spirit" and "Present Laughter."

In 1944, Webb made a brilliant motion picture debut as the acid-tongued critic in "Laura."

He followed his success with "Dark Corner" and "The Razor's Edge," then made his greatest hit as the imperious babysitter, Mr. Belvedere, in "Sitting Pretty."

POPULARITY LOWEST YET FOR JOHNSON

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — President Johnson's popularity dropped from a high of 84 percent shortly after his election to an all-time low of 48 per cent during September, Republican National Chairman Ray C. Bliss said yesterday.

Bliss attributed the figures to a national opinion poll. He spoke to 400 members of the Union League, urging business leaders to go beyond "financial aid" and get involved personally in getting out the vote.

The poll on Johnson's popularity was shown by Bliss in a series of slides. He said the survey was taken by Opinion Research Corp., Princeton, N. J.

'Doped' Police Weapons Studied

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A fleeing man who disregards a policeman's warning shot can be a dead duck. A state assembly committee today will consider making him a doped duck.

The Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee plans to consider the use of dart-tranquilizer guns by police departments in place of lethal weapons.

The dart gun fires explosive charges, dye pellets, and tear gas. They have been used to knockout dangerous animals without killing them.

State Empoyees Charged With Partisan Fund Giving

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A hearing examiner for the State Public Utilities Commission filed suit yesterday charging the California State Employees Assn. has illegally donated funds to political parties and candidates.

John Gillanders, the examiner, filed the suit in San Francisco Superior Court saying such donations were contrary to the non-partisan association's charter.

He did not specify the candidates or parties but asked that a court-appointed accountant determine if contributions were made to partisan candidates. If so, he asks that the association officers be removed and forced to repay the money.

Robert Spiegel of San Francisco, a CSEA director and one of the defendants, said the association participated in $100 a plate dinners for candidates. Organization members, he said, had attended dinners for Gov. Edmund G. Brown and Ronald Reagan, the Republican who opposes Brown's re-election.

Spiegel also said the CSEA board had approved spending $20,000 for election purposes — $10,000 to back Proposition 1 and another $10,000 to back Proposition 1A. Proposition 1 would allow investment of state employee retirement fund in common stocks. Proposition 1A would rewrite part of the state Constitution.

Other defendants are the association itself and Leroy Littlejohn, president; Mrs. Frances Dillon, secretary-treasurer; and Loren Smith, a director. All live in San Francisco except Smith, who is from Sacramento.

Mail Order Gun Display Given

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bazookas, mortars and anti-tank guns have one thing in common that Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch doesn't like:

They can be purchased from mail order houses by anyone who can write and has the money.

Lynch pointed to a 20mm anti-tank gun yesterday and said, "That was used to blow the bank vaults open of three eastern banks."

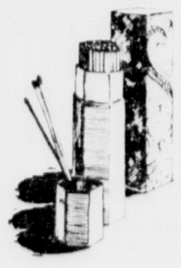

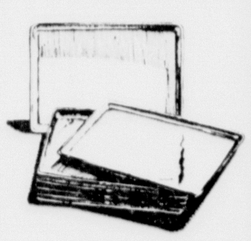

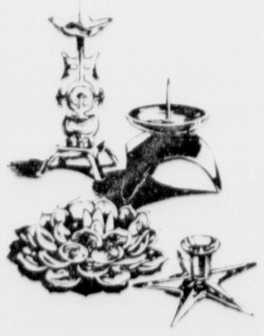

A demonstration of heavy weapons now available to the general public was held for members of the Assembly Criminal Procedures Committee at the Fort MacArthur Firing Range.

Lynch said he is urging to the committee that the weapons be banned from the mails.

SCHOOL SPIRIT PRODUCES TRAFFIC-STOPPERS

This is "Spirit Week" at Marin Catholic High School in Kentfield, to culminate with the school's football game tomorrow against Redwood High School. And for "Spirit Day" today, students donned an assortment of surprising togs, resulting in such getups as worn by this group whose appearance snarled traffic in downtown San Rafael as they paraded their school spirit. leadership of his country to this country, that we welcomed his people coming here in the exchange programs, and we wanted to know them better."

Ruling out a unilateral pause in U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam, Johnson said this had been tried twice with these results:

"Our boys sat there and watched the enemy. He didn't pause. He kept up his bombing. He threw his hand grenades. He lobbed his mortars into our troop encampments and killed our Marines, our airmen, our Army soldiers."

Said Johnson: "If the aggressor will pause, we will pause immediately. If they will withdraw, we will withdraw immediately.

"We will lay a schedule on the table tomorrow — a schedule to move out of South Viet Nam, to come home, to leave no troops in that area, to give up our bases — provided they will lay on the table their schedule for withdrawal, their schedule to get their people to quit the killing and the murdering that is going on.

Johnson brushed aside charges that his upcoming Far Eastern trip, three weeks before elections, is politically motivated.

As the conference wore on, Johnson warmed to the opportunity to whack at the Republican party.

With more than a touch of sarcasm, he said he was "particularly pleased to observe — the really historic move on the part of my friends, the Republicans, in the Congress, to support Social Security legislation."

"Only a few months ago, 93 per cent of them voted to kill medicare — another important part of Social Security.

"Now they seem to be in a big hurry to pass a bill as soon as they can. We welcome them to the vineyard."

Third Generation Attends Same School

ST. LOUIS (UPI) —Sherry Lee Barber is the third generation of her family to attend the same Clay Elementary Public Schoo.

She registered for first grade at the school which her mother, Mrs. Sandra Barber, and her grandmother, Mrs. Viola Helms, attended. All three showed up for September registration.

Satellites Would Probe Resources

By DAVID C. BREASTED
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — The Interior Department, to many a national parks outfit, is seeking a place in space with its own satellites to plumb the earth's natural resources.

Hand in hand with the space agency, Interior plans to send aloft a series of earth resources satellites (EROS) to take stock of everything from man's food supply to water pollution and possible new sources of oil.

Satellites have proven they can do these jobs in a fashion possible by no other means, Interior experts say.

Interior's bid for a place in space is viewed as an attempt to extract from the nation's expensive space program, target of Capitol Hill cost critics concerned with social problems, information of direct use to the great society and humanity generally.

EROS planners hope to begin launching in 1969 satellites which would initially carry television cameras covering the entire earth. The satellites would eventually carry more sophisticated infrared, magnetic, ultraviolet, photographic and other remote sensors. Satellite altitudes would be about 200 miles.

With these, "Facts on the distribution of needed minerals, our water supplies, and the extent of water pollution, agricultural crops and forests, and human habitations, can be obtained on a global basis and used for regional or continental long-range planning," Udall said.

Thanks to the state of the art in space sensors, director William T. Pecora of the United States Geological Survey, heading EROS, said "It may be entirely possible to determine rates of reservoir sedimentation, measure the effluent of major rivers, monitor the levels of lakes and reservoirs and the growth of deltas, and assess both air and water pollution."

Measurements of ground surface temperatures and ground moisture content, Pecora said, would be applicable to agricultural problems. The federal agriculture department is keeping tabs on EROS.

Other useful information EROS is intended to gather includes:

Presence of pollutants in water sources, identification of the pollutant and measurement of its strength and direction of movement, applicable to the Hudson and Mississippi rivers, or Long Island Sound.

EROS satellites would join the Weather Bureau's ESSA's 1 and 2 and the NASA's Tiros series, plus a variety of other specialized satellites, in adding to knowledge of the earth.

However, NASA and the Interior Department will have to go to Congress for money. Pecora said the projected costs would be comparatively cheap, but financing is still under discussion. Initial launch cost would be about $20 million a satellite.

something else out — and this time he could tell it was a child.

Mrs. Mwalilino then put her legs out the window and sat on the window ledge for a short time, still screaming, the witness told police.

She let herself down until she was holding onto the ledge with her fingers. Then she let go and fell screaming to the courtyard below.

Police said the family had moved into the 21-story apartment building recently.

The father, accompanied by another Malawi official, was brought to the apartment building by police. He apparently had not been told what happened. He was taken into an office and began shrieking a short time later.

Another witness, David Anderson, 23, a construction worker, said he was working in 87th Street and heard the screaming.

He looked up and saw the woman throw a child out of the window, he said.

About 25 persons, attracted by the screaming, quickly gathered near him.

"There just wasn't time to get to her," Anderson said.

100 per cent to protect the lives of the people involved."

He said Schlette's parole date was set originally for June 21. But eight days before he was due to walk away from Folsom Prison, an inmate told prison guards Schlette had talked of revenge on those who put him in jail.

"We cannot always believe everything we hear, but at the same time we could not afford to ignore it," said Dunbar.

He said the Adult Authority "took the precaution" of assigning Schlette to Vacaville for a mental checkup.

"This was much against his will. As soon as he was there he filed a writ of wrongful confinement," said Dunbar.

Finally he was released with strict parole supervisorial conditions. These included reporting every day and keeping out of Marin County.

"But as soon as he disappeared, like a prudent man we took precautions," Dunbar said.

The precautions, however, did not prevent Schlette from disappearing on the day of his release.

He said: "We are following up a few leads. Several calls have been received from people who believed they saw Schlette in the county but they proved mistaken."

He said his men were checking on reports Schlette may have tried to obtain weapons in San Francisco, including a bazooka and a steel vest.

Schlette was reported to have contacted an ex-convict from a pay phone in a downtown San Francisco hotel, but Casey said he was unable to confirm that it was the arsonist who made the call.

Schlette was taken from prison on Monday by his mother, Mrs. Muriel U. Schlette of Sonoma. She stopped at Napa, where her son went into a department store and disappeared.

WAR

activity in the 30 square miles at the eastern end of the buffer zone between North and South Viet Nam and said if it continues the U.S. and South Vietnamese governments "will be obliged to respond."

Bombing of the eastern end was suspended two weeks ago to allow field teams of the International Control Commission to investigate charges that the once neutral zone was being violated.

In South Viet Nam, ground fighting was relatively light as the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands reported a series of small, scattered clashes.

But American and South Vietnamese troops scored a notable success in opening 80 miles of highway through the Viet Cong-infested territory between Saigon and three rich rubber plantations near the Cambodian border north of the capital.

The 700-vehicle convoy, the largest since American troops came to Viet Nam, hauled rice for 40,000 people up to the plantations and returned with 2,500 tons of rubber worth $2 million, a vital export. Only minor Viet Cong harassment was reported, and no one was hit.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara returned to Washington from Saigon today prepared to tell President Johnson the enemy is taking heavy losses, the pace of the war was satisfactory, and there is no need for a big U.S. stepup.

After his one-week inspection tour, he told newsmen on his arrival at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., that there is "no reason to expect any significant increase in the level or tempo of operations in the foreseeable future."

The statement could be taken as a knockdown of Republican claims that the war might be heavily expanded after the November elections.

McNamara also sought to knock down speculation that American forces would be deployed in large numbers in the Mekong Delta area south of Saigon, which now is the responsibility of the South Vietnamese army.

The secretary said the Defense Department would be able to continue replacing military men in Viet Nam after one-year tours without "calling reserves or National Guard personnel."

McNamara said the enemy had intended to launch an offensive aimed at cutting South Viet Nam in half during the June-October monsoon season, but had failed.

Enemy forces took "heavy casualties" and were forced to shift their supply lines from the Ho Chi Mihn Trail through Laos to the demilitarized zone dividing the two Viet Nams, he said.

The enemy will be "equally unsuccessful in avoiding losses" in coming through the demiltarized zone, McNamara said.

82 Wasp Nests Are Destroyed

G. Paul Jones, manager of the Marin County Mosquito Abatement District, told the district's executive board last night that 82 yellow jacket nests were destroyed in Marin County last month.

He said 72 complaints about mosquitoes were received during September, most of them the elusive house mosquito which breeds in septic tanks and street catch-basins.

The district board accepted a low bid by J. & B. Ford Sales for two four-wheel drive pickup trucks at $4,273.56 after trade.

OBITUARIES

Charles W. Russell Dies At 58

Charles W. Russell of Novato died of a heart attack yesterday while playing golf at the Olympic Country Club in San Francisco. He was 58.

Russell worked as a purchasing agent for 16 years with the North Marin Water District in Novato and, prior to that, was a machinist at Mare Island Navy Yard in Vallejo.

He was a member of Hamilton Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; Woodwardia Lodge of San Rafael, the Novato Volunteer Fire Department, and the Indian Valley Golf Club. He lived in Marin County all his life.

He is survived by his wife, Rita H. Russell of 2 Boulevard Court, Novato; two daughters, Mrs. Hollie Braxton of Stockton and Sue Russell of San Carlos; Roger Russell also of San Carlos, and a granddaughter.

Funeral will be tomorrow at 3 p.m. at Chapel of Marin, 1801 Novato Boulevard, Novato. Burial will be in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

ISAK NILSEN

Funeral for Isak Nilsen, 70, who was found dead aboard a boat at Loch Lomond Marina last Sunday, was to be held this afternoon in San Francisco.

No cause of death has been established by the Marin County coroner's office.

Nilsen was a native of Norway, had lived in San Rafael aboard a boat at Loch Lomond Marina for five years and in California for 40 years. He was a merchant seaman and member of the Sailors Union of the Pacific.

He is survived by two brothers, Malvin and Nils Nilsen.

Burial will be in Olivet Memorial Park in Colma.

HOWARD POLLARD

Funeral for Howard Allan Pollard, 84, father of Mrs. Carl Schick of Larkspur, was held today in Garberville, Humboldt County.

Pollard, a former Marin County resident, accidentally shot himself Tuesday when he was cleaning a gun at his home in Weott.

A builder, Pollard lived in Manor until he moved north in 1945.

He is survived by his wife, Viola Pollard of Weott; two daughters, Mrs. Schick and Mrs. James B. Ellis of Oakland, and a brother, Ethan Allan Pollard of Chico, and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

GRACE KYNOCK

Memorial services were held Wednesday for Mrs. Grace E. Kynoch of Seattle, Wash., wife of a former editor and publisher of the Marin Journal. Mrs. Kynoch died Sunday in a Seattle hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Knoch was a native of California and the daughter of Suisun-Vaca Valley pioneers. She came to San Rafael with her husband, E. L. Kynoch, in 1921. She moved north in 1950.

Kynoch was editor and publisher of the Marin Journal from 1921 to 1928, and again from 1934 until his death in 1942.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Philip J. Hobbs, and two grandsons, all of Issaquah, Wash.

HENRY H. DeLaMONTANYA

Twelve-year-old Harry H. De La Montanya, son of Mrs. Lucille De La Montanya of Rohnert Park and Hudson De La Montanya of Novato, died yesterday at a San Francisco hospital.

Harry was stricken with leukemia in May. At that time, Mrs. De La Montanya and Harry's sister, Jill, moved to Corte Madera to stay with Mrs. De La Montanya's mother, Mrs. Ethel Kreuter, to be nearer the hospital.

Harry was born in San Rafael, moving to Rohnert Park with his mother in 1961. He attended John Reed School in Rohnert Park until taken ill.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. Monday at Holy Innocents Church, Corte Madera. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery. Memorial contributions to Holy Innocents Church building fund or the Leukemia Fund are preferred by the family.

FLORENCE EZEKIEL

Graveside service for Florence E. Ezekiel of Mill Valley was held today at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

She died Wednesday at a local convalescent hospital after a long illness.

A native of San Francisco, she lived in Marin County for 66 years. She resided at 239 Miller Avenue.

She is survived by four sisters, Miss Leslie R. Ezekiel of Larkspur, Mrs. Sarah Borgeson and Mrs. Eve M. Bowley, both of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Josephine V. Schueler of Baltimore, Md.

ALMA McCRACKEN

Funeral for Mrs. Alma McCracken, mother of Mrs. Thurlow C. Jaegeling of Larkspur, will be held Monday at 11 a.m. at Halsted and Co. in San Francisco. Burial will be in Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

Mrs. McCracken died Wednesday in a local hospital after a brief illness.

A native of Sweden, Mrs. McCracken was a long-time San Francisco resident, but recently moved to live with her daughter at 125 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur.

She was a member of the Swedish Ladies Society.

In addition to her daughter, she is survived by two granddaughters.

New Fund Set To Save Birds

PORTLAND, Ore. (SS- — The vanishing American eagle may not vanish after all if increasing conservation efforts are successful. A "nest egg" of private funds to help save the bird has been announced by the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry here.

Encroaching civilization and needless deaths of young eagles seem to be working against the survival of the species. Curious woodsmen coming upon a nest of young may scare them to death by just peering admiringly into the nest or taking pictures. Frightened fledglings are often killed in falls from their nests.

Effective conservation programs will depend on better understanding of the eagle's habits and more data on his nesting sites and numbers. A $1,000 grant from the Georgia-Pacific Foundation here will be used by naturalist-photographer James Anderson to extend his present studies on the eagle and his environment. Hopefully, other sources will add to the conservation fund, which is also to be used for aerial surveys of nesting areas and to assist bird counts and further study of feeding and nesting habits.

The American Bald Eagle, which makes its home in western Oregon, and the Golden Eagle living in the east of the state are invaluable in exerting a natural control on rodents and predators.

Six months in jail and/or a $500 fine is the price one pays for harming or destroying an eagle these days. It is a Federal offense.

Chamber To Observe The 'Sweetest Day'

The Novato Chamber of Commerce has joined a national movement to make the third Saturday of October "Sweetest Day."

Tomorrow is that third Saturday and, according to Andrew Bretz, secretary-manager of the chamber, it is no holiday, "just a day to make someone happy." The chamber will give a "Sweetest Day" luncheon for six Hamilton Air Force Base personnel, two nurses and Mrs. Mabel Carlson, a leader in Novato elder citizens' activities, at noon tomorrow at Nave Lanes.

Budget Wrangling Topples Netherlands' Government

THE HAGUE (UPI) —The coalition government of Dr. Joseph M. L. T. Cals fell early today when Cals' own Catholic People's party spearheaded a no-confidence vote in his budget policies.

The revolt toppled the Catholic, Labor and Anti-Revolutionary party coalition which has ruled the country since April 14, 1965.

Cals will submit his resignation to Queen Juliana and new elections will probably be held within a few weeks.

Norbert Schmelzer, leader of the Catholic People's party faction in the second chamber, filed a no-confidence motion following a marathon session at which Cals and his Socialist finance minister, Dr. Anne Vonedeling, defended the government's fiscal policies.

The motion said the cabinet's "planned financial economic policy should contain more guarantees for balanced growth and against continuing inflation and unemployment." It was passed by a 75-62 vote.

Government critics charged there would be a $98 million budget gap in 1967 and twice as much the following year. This, they said, represented a "trap for future governments."

Democratic Center To Open Tomorrow

SCHOOL SPIRIT PRODUCES TRAFFIC-STOPPERS

This is "Spirit Week" at Marin Catholic High School in Kentfield, to culminate with the school's football game tomorrow against Redwood High School. And for "Spirit Day" today, students donned an assortment of surprising togs, resulting in such getups as worn by this group whose appearance snarled traffic in downtown San Rafael as they paraded their school spirit. leadership of his country to this country, that we welcomed his people coming here in the exchange programs, and we wanted to know them better."

Ruling out a unilateral pause in U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam, Johnson said this had been tried twice with these results:

"Our boys sat there and watched the enemy. He didn't pause. He kept up his bombing. He threw his hand grenades. He lobbed his mortars into our troop encampments and killed our Marines, our airmen, our Army soldiers."

Said Johnson: "If the aggressor will pause, we will pause immediately. If they will withdraw, we will withdraw immediately.

"We will lay a schedule on the table tomorrow — a schedule to move out of South Viet Nam, to come home, to leave no troops in that area, to give up our bases — provided they will lay on the table their schedule for withdrawal, their schedule to get their people to quit the killing and the murdering that is going on.

Johnson brushed aside charges that his upcoming Far Eastern trip, three weeks before elections, is politically motivated.

As the conference wore on, Johnson warmed to the opportunity to whack at the Republican party.

With more than a touch of sarcasm, he said he was "particularly pleased to observe — the really historic move on the part of my friends, the Republicans, in the Congress, to support Social Security legislation."

"Only a few months ago, 93 per cent of them voted to kill medicare — another important part of Social Security.

"Now they seem to be in a big hurry to pass a bill as soon as they can. We welcome them to the vineyard."

Satellites Would Probe Resources

By DAVID C. BREASTED
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — The Interior Department, to many a national parks outfit, is seeking a place in space with its own satellites to plumb the earth's natural resources.

Hand in hand with the space agency, Interior plans to send aloft a series of earth resources satellites (EROS) to take stock of everything from man's food supply to water pollution and possible new sources of oil.

Satellites have proven they can do these jobs in a fashion possible by no other means, Interior experts say.

Interior's bid for a place in space is viewed as an attempt to extract from the nation's expensive space program, target of Capitol Hill cost critics concerned with social problems, information of direct use to the great society and humanity generally.

EROS planners hope to begin launching in 1969 satellites which would initially carry television cameras covering the entire earth. The satellites would eventually carry more sophisticated infrared, magnetic, ultraviolet, photographic and other remote sensors. Satellite altitudes would be about 200 miles.

With these, "Facts on the distribution of needed minerals, our water supplies, and the extent of water pollution, agricultural crops and forests, and human habitations, can be obtained on a global basis and used for regional or continental long-range planning," Udall said.

Thanks to the state of the art in space sensors, director William T. Pecora of the United States Geological Survey, heading EROS, said "It may be entirely possible to determine rates of reservoir sedimentation, measure the effluent of major rivers, monitor the levels of lakes and reservoirs and the growth of deltas, and assess both air and water pollution."

Measurements of ground surface temperatures and ground moisture content, Pecora said, would be applicable to agricultural problems. The federal agriculture department is keeping tabs on EROS.

Other useful information EROS is intended to gather includes:

Presence of pollutants in water sources, identification of the pollutant and measurement of its strength and direction of movement, applicable to the Hudson and Mississippi rivers, or Long Island Sound.

Large folds in the earth's shell which could harbor undected pools of petroleum.

EROS satellites would join the Weather Bureau's ESSA's 1 and 2 and the NASA's Tiros series, plus a variety of other specialized satellites, in adding to knowledge of the earth.

However, NASA and the Interior Department will have to go to Congress for money. Pecora said the projected costs would be comparatively cheap, but financing is still under discussion. Initial launch cost would be about $20 million a satellite.

something else out — and this time he could tell it was a child.

Mrs. Mwalilino then put her legs out the window and sat on the window ledge for a short time, still screaming, the witness told police.

She let herself down until she was holding onto the ledge with her fingers. Then she let go and fell screaming to the courtyard below.

Police said the family had moved into the 21-story apartment building recently.

The father, accompanied by another Malawi official, was brought to the apartment building by police. He apparently had not been told what happened. He was taken into an office and began shrieking a short time later.

Another witness, David Anderson, 23, a construction worker, said he was working in 87th Street and heard the screaming.

He looked up and saw the woman throw a child out of the window, he said.

About 25 persons, attracted by the screaming, quickly gathered near him.

"There just wasn't time to get to her," Anderson said.

100 per cent to protect the lives of the people involved."

He said Schlette's parole date was set originally for June 21. But eight days before he was due to walk away from Folsom Prison, an inmate told prison guards Schlette had talked of revenge on those who put him in jail.

"We cannot always believe everything we hear, but at the same time we could not afford to ignore it," said Dunbar.

He said the Adult Authority "took the precaution" of assigning Schlette to Vacaville for a mental checkup.

"This was much against his will. As soon as he was there he filed a writ of wrongful confinement," said Dunbar.

Finally he was released with strict parole supervisorial conditions. These included reporting every day and keeping out of Marin County.

"But as soon as he disappeared, like a prudent man we took precautions," Dunbar said.

The precautions, however, did not prevent Schlette from disappearing on the day of his release.

He said: "We are following up a few leads. Several calls have been received from people who believed they saw Schlette in the county but they proved mistaken."

He said his men were checking on reports Schlette may have tried to obtain weapons in San Francisco, including a bazooka and a steel vest.

Schlette was reported to have contacted an ex-convict from a pay phone in a downtown San Francisco hotel, but Casey said he was unable to confirm that it was the arsonist who made the call.

Schlette was taken from prison Monday by his mother, Mrs. Muriel U. Schlette of Sonoma. She stopped at Napa, where her son went into a department store and disappeared.

activity in the 30 square miles at the eastern end of the buffer zone between North and South Viet Nam and said if it continues the U.S. and South Vietnamese governments "will be obliged to respond."

Bombing of the eastern end was suspended two weeks ago to allow field teams of the International Control Commission to investigate charges that the once neutral zone was being violated.

In South Viet Nam, ground fighting was relatively light as the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands reported a series of small, scattered clashes.

But American and South Vietnamese troops scored a notable success in opening 80 miles of highway through the Viet Cong-infested territory between Saigon and three rich rubber plantations near the Cambodian border north of the capital.

The 700-vehicle convoy, the largest since American troops came to Viet Nam, hauled rice for 40,000 people up to the plantations and returned with 2,500 tons of rubber worth $2 million, a vital export. Only minor Viet Cong harassment was reported, and no one was hit.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara returned to Washington from Saigon today prepared to tell President Johnson the enemy is taking heavy losses, the pace of the war was satisfactory, and there is no need for a big U.S. stepup.

After his one-week inspection tour, he told newsmen on his arrival at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., that there is "no reason to expect any significant increase in the level or tempo of operations in the foreseeable future."

The statement could be taken as a knockdown of Republican claims that the war might be heavily expanded after the November elections.

McNamara also sought to knock down speculation that American forces would be deployed in large numbers in the Mekong Delta area south of Saigon, which now is the responsibility of the South Vietnamese army.

The secretary said the Defense Department would be able to continue replacing military men in Viet Nam after one-year tours without "calling reserves or National Guard personnel."

McNamara said the enemy had intended to launch an offensive aimed at cutting South Viet Nam in half during the June-October monsoon season, but had failed.

Enemy forces took "heavy casualties" and were forced to shift their supply lines from the Ho Chi Mihn Trail through Laos to the demilitarized zone dividing the two Viet Nams, he said.

The enemy will be "equally unsuccessful in avoiding losses" in coming through the demiltarized zone, McNamara said.

82 Wasp Nests Are Destroyed

G. Paul Jones, manager of the Marin County Mosquito Abatement District, told the district's executive board last night that 82 yellow jacket nests were destroyed in Marin County last month.

He said 72 complaints about mosquitoes were received during September, most of them the elusive house mosquito which breeds in septic tanks and street catch-basins.

The district board accepted a low bid by J. & B. Ford Sales for two four-wheel drive pickup trucks at $4,273.56 after trade.

OBITUARIES

Charles W. Russell Dies At 58

Charles W. Russell of Novato died of a heart attack yesterday while playing golf at the Olympic Country Club in San Francisco. He was 58.

Russell worked as a purchasing agent for 16 years with the North Marin Water District in Novato and, prior to that, was a machinist at Mare Island Navy Yard in Vallejo.

He was a member of Hamilton Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; Woodwardia Lodge of San Rafael, the Novato Volunteer Fire Department, and the Indian Valley Golf Club. He lived in Marin County all his life.

He is survived by his wife, Rita H. Russell of 2 Boulevard Court, Novato; two daughters, Mrs. Hollie Braxton of Stockton and Sue Russell of San Carlos; Roger Russell also of San Carlos, and a granddaughter.

Funeral will be tomorrow at 3 p.m. at Chapel of Marin, 1801 Novato Boulevard, Novato. Burial will be in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

ISAK NILSEN

Funeral for Isak Nilsen, 70, who was found dead aboard a boat at Loch Lomond Marina last Sunday, was to be held this afternoon in San Francisco.

No cause of death has been established by the Marin County coroner's office.

Nilsen was a native of Norway, had lived in San Rafael aboard a boat at Loch Lomond Marina for five years and in California for 40 years. He was a merchant seaman and member of the Sailors Union of the Pacific.

He is survived by two brothers, Malvin and Nils Nilsen.

Burial will be in Olivet Memorial Park in Colma.

HOWARD POLLARD

Funeral for Howard Allan Pollard, 84, father of Mrs. Carl Schick of Larkspur, was held today in Garberville, Humboldt County.

Pollard, a former Marin County resident, accidentally shot himself Tuesday when he was cleaning a gun at his home in Weott.

A builder, Pollard lived in Manor until he moved north in 1945.

He is survived by his wife, Viola Pollard of Weott; two daughters, Mrs. Schick and Mrs. James B. Ellis of Oakland, and a brother, Ethan Allan Pollard of Chico, and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

GRACE KYNOCK

Memorial services were held Wednesday for Mrs. Grace E. Kynoch of Seattle, Wash., wife of a former editor and publisher of the Marin Journal. Mrs. Kynoch died Sunday in a Seattle hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Knoch was a native of California and the daughter of Suisun-Vaca Valley pioneers. She came to San Rafael with her husband, E. L. Kynoch, in 1921. She moved north in 1950.

Kynoch was editor and publisher of the Marin Journal from 1921 to 1928, and again from 1934 until his death in 1942.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Philip J. Hobbs, and two grandsons, all of Issaquah, Wash.

HENRY H. DeLaMONTANYA

Twelve-year-old Harry H. De La Montanya, son of Mrs. Lucille De La Montanya of Rohnert Park and Hudson De La Montanya of Novato, died yesterday at a San Francisco hospital.

Harry was stricken with leukemia in May. At that time, Mrs. De La Montanya and Harry's sister, Jill, moved to Corte Madera to stay with Mrs. De La Montanya's mother, Mrs. Ethel Kreuter, to be nearer the hospital.

Harry was born in San Rafael, moving to Rohnert Park with his mother in 1961. He attended John Reed School in Rohnert Park until taken ill.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. Monday at Holy Innocents Church, Corte Madera. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery. Memorial contributions to Holy Innocents Church building fund or the Leukemia Fund are preferred by the family.

FLORENCE EZEKIEL

Graveside service for Florence E. Ezekiel of Mill Valley was held today at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

She died Wednesday at a local convalescent hospital after a long illness.

A native of San Francisco, she lived in Marin County for 66 years. She resided at 239 Miller Avenue.

She is survived by four sisters, Miss Leslie R. Ezekiel of Larkspur, Mrs. Sarah Borgeson and Mrs. Eve M. Bowley, both of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Josephine V. Schueler of Baltimore, Md.

ALMA McCRACKEN

Funeral for Mrs. Alma McCracken, mother of Mrs. Thurlow C. Jaegeling of Larkspur, will be held Monday at 11 a.m. at Halsted and Co. in San Francisco. Burial will be in Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

Mrs. McCracken died Wednesday in a local hospital after a brief illness.

A native of Sweden, Mrs. McCracken was a long-time San Francisco resident, but recently moved to live with her daughter at 125 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur.

She was a member of the Swedish Ladies Society.

In addition to her daughter, she is survived by two granddaughters.

DRAMA REVIEW

'Waiting For Godot' Poses Old Question

By KARL BARRON

The question "Who is Godot?" was once again posed at the Playhouse in San Francisco last night in a well-acted, well-directed production of Samuel Beckett's "Waiting for Godot."

Moving aimlessly about the single tree which comprises the setting, the characters in Beckett's strange drama keep sniping at the question of why we are here, and reach no conclusion. The members of the audience reach their own conclusions, seldom similar.

JUST A DREAM?

Is Godot God? Fate? The Devil? The Unknowable? Or the dream that each of us treasures awarely or subconsciously? He is any or all these things depending on how we react to the probings set in motion by Estragon and Vladimir, almost twins in costume and condition, but as they are played in this production, two very different characters.

Estragon has slept in a ditch and "they" beat him again. We never know who "they" are. Though the two are waiting for Godot, they don't know why they are waiting, except that "everything will be all right" when they do see him.

UNCERTAIN, TOO

Into the scene come Pozzo and his slave, Lucky. Pozzo is completely in command, yet suddenly we find that he is as uncertain as the rest — cannot sit down without finding a valid excuse for sitting or being invited to sit.

Lucky, commanded to think, bursts into hysterical torrents of man's accumulated knowledge, obviously unaware of the meaning of a single word.

Throughout the play runs the theme of the dependence of Estragon and Vladimir on each other, and their compassion for each other, in spite of rifts which spring from the simplest conversations.

NEVER BORING

The Playhouse production under David Lindeman's direction creates a fine feeling of timelessness. On opening night it ran until midnight from an 8:40 curtain, yet was never boring and held the audience silent to the final curtain. A little faster pacing will no doubt shorten it without losing the atmosphere.

James Hillgartner and Allan Sheehan are outstanding as Estragon and Vladimir, respectively.

Hillgartner is the pragmatist, concerned about his sore feet, whining numerous complaints, and drily bringing Sheehan down to earth from any possible flight of fancy. Sheehan, a sad-faced French clown in appearance, dramatizes his role to counterpoint Hillgartner's studied flatness. The combination is great.

Keith Reagan looks the part of Pozzo, and in his scenes of uncertainty is convincing, but seems to lack the menacing authority the character needs. Fred Key's Lucky is a properly drooling wretch. John MacCallum brings great sincerity to the messenger from Godot.

The production is enhanced by Jim Renning's fine lighting design against Keith Snider's austere setting. It plays Thursday and Friday at 8:30 p.m. at the Playhouse, Beach and Hyde streets.

Chamber To Observe The 'Sweetest Day'

The Novato Chamber of Commerce has joined a national movement to make the third Saturday of October "Sweetest Day."

Tomorrow is that third Saturday and, according to Andrew Bretz, secretary-manager of the chamber, it is no holiday, "just a day to make someone happy." The chamber will give a "Sweetest Day" luncheon for six Hamilton Air Force Base personnel, two nurses and Mrs. Mabel Carlson, a leader in Novato elder citizens' activities, at noon tomorrow at Nave Lanes.

UC research has helped California agriculture grow to a 3.7 billion dollar industry.

Budget Wrangling Topples Netherlands' Government

THE HAGUE (UPI) —The coalition government of Dr. Joseph M. L. T. Cals fell early today when Cals' own Catholic People's party spearheaded a no-confidence vote in his budget policies.

The revolt toppled the Catholic, Labor and Anti-Revolutionary party coalition which has ruled the country since April 14, 1965.

Cals will submit his resignation to Queen Juliana and new elections will probably be held within a few weeks.

Norbert Schmelzer, leader of the Catholic People's party faction in the second chamber, filed a no-confidence motion following a marathon session at which Cals and his Socialist finance minister, Dr. Anne Vonedeling, defended the government's fiscal policies.

The motion said the cabinet's "planned financial economic policy should contain more guarantees for balanced growth and against continuing inflation and unemployment." It was passed by a 75-62 vote.

Government critics charged there would be a $98 million budget gap in 1967 and twice as much the following year. This, they said, represented a "trap for future governments."

Democratic Center To Open Tomorrow

Democratic headquarters in Novato will open tomorrow with ceremonies from noon to 5 p.m.

The headquarters is in the offices of John Novak Inc., 1780 Grant Avenue. It will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Sunday.

Plant Explodes; Five Are Killed

MONTREAL (AP) — A chain of explosions and fires tore apart a chemical plant on Montreal's outskirts last night, and police said at least five men were killed and 10 others injured. Four others were missing.

Ken Molyneaux, personnel director at the Monsanto Canada Ltd. plant where the blast occurred, said the cause of the explosion would not be known for several days and maybe not for weeks.

The explosions, which broke windows more than a mile from the scene in suburban LaSalle, occurred in a group of tanks containing chemicals believed used in the manufacture of plastics. About 30 workers were in the plant at the time.

Reagan Names Author Of 'Creative Society'

LOS ANGELES—The running battle between Republican Ronald Reagan and Democratic Gov. Brown over charges of extremism took a new turn today.

Reagan confirmed Brown's charge that Dr. W. S. McBirnie, a Glendale radio commentator and evangelist, had suggested the name of "Creative Society" for Reagan's campaign for governor.

Brown, in making the statement, had branded McBirnie an extremist. Then yesterday Democratic State Chairman Charles Warren produced a letter he said McBirnie wrote to Reagan suggesting the title along with a campaign philosophy.

McBirnie denied he is an extremist and said the Creative Society was Reagan's idea. Last night, Reagan told reporters.

"It is true that of all the names suggested, Dr. McBirnie came up with the name of the creative society.

"I'm very happy having the help of Dr. McBirnie and he has been of inestimable help in expressing the philosophy of the Creative Society," Reagan said.

CONTRACT HIT

The exchange came at the close of a day of campaigning that saw Reagan announce a new labor plan and charge that the Brown administration had allowed a Los Angeles firm to make a 1,500 per cent profit on a state contract.

Reagan said Viertels Automotive Service of Los Angeles rented space under a Los Angeles freeway for $142.41 a month. It then stored automobiles on the same property for the state at a charge of $2,690 a month, Reagan said.

Robert Harkness, director of the state General Services Department, replied the firm reports it spends $2,360 a month to maintain and protect the cars and parts and to maintain the lots.

All told, Harkness said, the state pays only $9 a month to store each car compared with the going rate of $12 to $15 a car in other lots.

He said a study shows it would be more expensive to store the cars in state garages.

Reagan said he would seek creation of a three-man commission with the power to enter labor-management disputes that are now outside the jurisdiction of both federal and state officials. These are intrastate disputes such as the farm-labor controversy in Delano.

Gov. Brown's fellow Democratic incumbents in statewide office stood accused today of "hiding" from voters during the current campaign because they believe Brown is losing.

The charge was made by James W. Halley, vice chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, in a statement issued yesterday in Los Angeles.

Halley said Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson, Controller Alan Cranston, Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch and Treasurer Bert A. Betts "all know he (Brown) is losing and lack the will to defend and discuss the record of their own administration."

POLL FINDINGS

The bi-partisan Field Poll showed Anderson leading GOP contender Robert Finch by 11 percentage points; Lynch leading Republican Spencer Williams by 19 percentage points; and Cranston holding a 22 percentage point lead over Assemblyman Houston I. Flournoy, R-Claremont.

The poll showed only Betts among Democrats apparently in serious trouble. He held a lead of just one percentage point over GOP challenger Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, former U.S. Treasurer.

Brown managed to coin a new slogan, "love the guv," as he talked to picketing state nurses in Los Angeles. He pledged to the nurses he'd fight for a pay increase for them next year, but said it's not within his power to do anything now.

When the nurses promised him 2,000 votes if he'd get them higher pay, Brown replied: "I need the votes ... have confidence in the guv, love the guv."

Reagan draws substantial support from rich out-of-state ultra-conservatives, Brown asserted last night, "because they know he is an enemy of practically every piece of social legislation since Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Brown noted a statement this week by the finance chairman of the GOP in Connecticut rich Republicans in his state are ignoring GOP candidates there in order to help finance Reagan's bid to thwart Brown's effort for a third term.

The Connecticut chairman said that at least $400,000 that could have been used for local candidates had traveled across the nation to Reagan.

"Do you imagine for one second that they sent my opponent this money because they think he's a friend of medicare or a friend of Social Security or a friend of fair tax policies?" Brown asked.

It was ladies' day today in the gubernatorial campaign.

Mrs. Edmund G. Brown and Joan Kennedy, wife of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., had heavier campaign schedules in behalf of Brown's re-election bid than either Brown or Republican challenger Ronald Reagan.

Coffee hours and receptions were on tap today in San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose and Sacramento. The ladies planned to fly to Los Angeles tonight.

Stereo Equipment Stolen From Home

Burglars took $748 in stereo equipment from the home of Clara V. McMillen, 116 Mariposa Avenue, San Anselmo, yesterday, according to San Anselmo police.

Mrs. McMillen discovered the theft when she arrived home at 7 p.m. The thieves entered through an unlocked window.

Reagan's Running Mate Predicts Win By 600,000

Latest statewide polls indicate that Ronald Reagan will win the governorship by as much as 600,000 votes, Reagan's running mate, Robert H. Finch, claimed yesterday in San Rafael.

Finch, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, and Houston I. Flournoy, candidate for state controller, campaigned through Marin yesterday afternoon and evening.

"I think Reagan is home," said Finch.

Marin's two Republican legislators, State Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley, accompanied Finch and Flournoy in the Marin tour, including a visit to the Independent-Journal and KTIM radio station.

Finch and Flournoy were feted at a champagne reception last night at the Elks Club Carriage House in San Rafael. A crowd of about 150 greeted the two Republican candidates and their wives.

Finch called for a program of student loan funds to help needy students obtain college education in state universities.

Assemblyman Flournoy, R-Claremont, who is seeking the post of state controller, charged that California is "bankrupt."

He accused incumbent Ctntroller Alan Cranston, Gov. Edmund G. Brown and Director of Finance Hale Campion of engaging in a "cynical conspiracy to distort the bankrupt condition of the state until after the election."

"Each year they have borrowed revenues from the future to head off disaster," said Flournoy. "The accumulated bills for this so-called fiscal policy insure a $350 million deficit for the next budget."

No Agreement, No New Freeway, Engineer Tells Ross Councilmen

An engineer of the State Division of Highways was asked by members of Ross Town Council last night what would happen if Ross failed to sign a freeway agreement allowing extension of Highway 17 through the town.

"We have not built a freeway yet without getting an agreement from all communities involved," replied Deputy District Engineer C. F. Greene. "It could not be practical."

Greene had been invited to a meeting of the council to describe possible locations of the new highway.

The town hall was crowded, but Mayor Frederick S. Allen scotched possible debate from the audience by saying Greene was there for a presentation and not a public hearing.

In answer to a question by Councilman Roy Farrington Jones, Greene said that without an agreement, the freeway builders could not touch a street or road in the town. In practice, a freeway would not be possible.

Councilman Jordan L. Martinelli Jr. asked if it were possible for the council to stipulate interchanges at all streets if the freeway were to pass through Ross. Greene said it was possible but not always practical.

The engineer said the purpose of submitting the proposals at this time was to facilitate long-range planners. The earliest a route could be adopted by the state would be next spring. It is unlikely there would be funds available to begin building before the middle 1970's, he said.

The route which would most effect Ross, he explained, is that proposed to start at the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, cut across San Quentin Point to the Greenbrae Wye on Highway 101, proceed along the south side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, then swing northward across the boulevard near Bon Air Road and continue northward, crossing Wolfe Grade.

The route would then continue along the north side of the ridge, near Laurel Grove Avenue in Kentfield and Ross and swing down to cross Sir Francis Drake Boulevard again near Bolinas Avenue. From there it would go north to a central corridor along Center Boulevard and on to Fairfax.

A male voice asked Greene from the back of the hall: "Does it make any difference who is elected governor? This route is unthinkable and should never have been proposed."

The route had been under consideration, said Greene, under different administrations. He did not think it would make any difference.

Mayor Allen announced detailed plans of the routes as they effect Ross will be on display at Ross School on Oct. 26.

Ross Town Council Grants Permit For Antique Shop

Ross Town Council last night granted a temporary variance to Marin Art and Garden Center for operation of its antique shop, after hearing a progress report on talks which may lead to greater control of the center by the council.

The council's coordinating committee, composed of Councilmen Jordan L. Martinelli Jr. and William P. McAndrew, has been meeting with center directors about complaints of "honky tonk" atmosphere and sloppy art displays there earlier this year.

Martinelli said committee recommendations would not be ready for the council until early December. But, he added, it was expected the cultural ordinance effecting the center would remain substantially the same with the addition of maximum traffic and attendance allowed at the center.

Anything over the maximums, he said, would require permits from the council. The committee was also looking closely into the noise allegations, he reported.

The council decided to study further a proposal by Police Chief John F. Harris that the children's crosswalk at the bridge near the Town Hall be moved to the Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Lagunitas Road intersection. Harris said the school has agreed to furnish two traffic guards if this system is adopted.

The Ross Town Council also:

1. Agreed to a request by Miss Evelyn Federline of Allen Lane to clear a culvert near her home in expectation of flooding problems.

2. Accepted petitions objecting to a concrete ditch through Ross as part of the Army Corps of Engineers' Corte Madera Creek flood control project, and asking that Ross be included in the county's flood control zone No. 9 for the protection of amenities. Councilman Natalie G. Lewis said they will be considered during public hearings on the project.

3. Granted a variance to Arthur G. Dettner of Winding Way permitting a susbstandard lot of .9 of an acre in an acre zone, provided it is not built upon.

4. Expressed regret at the death of T. Bruce Selfridge, former Ross town councilman, who died recently.

Prospective buyers can check for internal damage to buildings by using X-rays and gamma rays to detect such faults as cracks and internal rotting.

Another Sonic Boom Reported

Marin was treated to its second sonic boom in two days during yesterday's noon hour.

Hamilton Air Force Base spokesmen, who said the boom hit at 12:20 p.m., attributed it to high altitude maneuvers by an SR-71 aircraft from Beale Air Force Base, Marysville, the same plane causing the boom Wednesday.

Another boom was expected this afternoon, final day of the scheduled overflights.

Camaro Sport Coupe

Camaro SS 350 Convertible with Rally Sport equipment

Look how far you can go!

Besides looking like that, Camaro comes with all this standard:
Strato-bucket seats. Carpeting. Rich vinyl upholstery. Fully synchronized 3-speed transmission. A 140-hp Six or a big-car V8 (210 hp!), depending on model. New safety features: GM-developed energy-absorbing steering column, four-way hazard warning flasher, folding front seat back latches, shoulder belt anchors and others.

Pull the switch "on" and headlights appear at both ends of the full-width grille on a Camaro Rally Sport. What else you get: special trim, sides and rear, and RS emblems. Something else you can order on every Camaro: a Custom Interior with color-accented bucket seats, special door panels, sports steering wheel and more.

Besides Camaro's biggest V8 (295 hp!), SS 350 comes with the special hood, rally striping around the grille and big, fat red stripe tires. On this or any Camaro, you can also specify front disc brakes, a 4-speed, center console, Strato-back front seat for three, 8-track stereo tape system. Camaro's your idea of a car!

POLITICAL BRIEFS

Senior Citizen Club Formed For Brown

Anthony Franklin of Novato today announced the formation of a Marin Senior Citizens Committee to Re-Elect Governor Brown.

"Senior citizens who must live on fixed incomes know the importance of retaining Gov. Brown, who fought for Medicare, for higher old age assistance and for special housing allowances for the elderly," said Franklin. "How can we forget that Governor Brown's personal efforts resulted in passage of the Med-Cal program. While Governor Brown was working to help us, Mr. Reagan was being paid to fight Medicare by the American Medical Assn."

McCARTHY TALKS

State Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, on Tuesday, will have a series of coffee hours, starting at 10:15 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard O'Brien, 529 Appleberry Road, Terra Linda. This will be followed by four coffee hours and receptions in Benecia and Vallejo.

YOUNG PARTY

Two cocktail parties will be given in honor of Assemblyman Pearce Young, Democratic candidate for state Senate in the Fourth District, tomorrow night.

Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Troy Lewis of San Rafael and Dr. and Mrs. Albert White of Mill Valley.

Schlei Reception

A reception honoring Norbert A. Schlei, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, will be held in Ross next Thursday.

Hosts are Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Flax of 10 Lagunitas Road. The reception will be from 6 to 8 p.m.

VET BACKERS

Three Marin County veterans were named to the Northern California Committee of Veterans to Elect Ronald Reagan Governor of California. They are Don Durbeck, Richard H. Miehling, and Col. Avery M. Cochran.

Bartender Foils Bridge Jumper

A Piedmont painter left a note in a Lombard Street bar in San Francisco yesterday, saying he was going to jump off the Golden Gate Bridge.

He didn't make it.

The bartender, Gully Foil, found the note and called the bridge. Lawrence De Young, 38, was taken into custody by the highway patrol at the toll plaza and sent to San Francisco General Hospital for psychiatric observation.

Route 17 Meeting

San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce will meet with C. F. Greene of the State Division of Highways at 7:30 a.m. Thursday in Alexander Hall, San Francisco Theological Seminary to study proposed routes for Highway 17.

Sewer Board Charges City On Park Line

Directors of Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District last night reiterated refusal to waive the area connection charge for the City of San Rafael's five-acre Santa Margarita Park at the north end of Del Ganado Road.

The charge, at $100 per acre, should be required even of other government agencies, the directors decided, according to Mrs. Helen D. Foulkes, district secretary.

Directors accepted sewer installations in the eight-acre Del Norte tract on North San Pedro Road, the two-acre Marin Center Unit One on the frontage road at the Terra Linda overpass, and the six-acre Northgate Shopping Center Unit Three east of the Emporium.

Directors adopted an ordinance changing regular meetings from the second to first Thursday of each month. It will take effect next month, making the meeting fall at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 3.

Woman Reported Fair From Fall

A 21-year-old San Rafael woman was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with cuts and bruises suffered last night when she fell into the bay in Sausalito.

Elizabeth Saghy, 120 Mountain View Avenue, fell through an opening in a catwalk on the south side of the Trade Fair, the former ferry boat Berkeley, police said. Her companion, Pete Terry, 25, of Burlingame, called police.

Using ropes and ladders, firemen pulled her from the bay. She was in the water from about 11 to 11:30 p.m.

Larkspur Board Orders Paving

The Larkspur School District board last night awarded a $10,294 contract for blacktopping at Neil Cummins School to low bidder A. J. Bresnan Co. of San Rafael.

Nine bids were received. High bidder was Herb A. Saxton of San Rafael at $21,950.

The board accepted $1,628 in federal funds for library books, and Supt. Milton S. Cohen reported on paperback libraries being established in classrooms.

The board approved district participation in a county-sponsored neighborhood youth corps, and learned that the district could provide 10 jobs for participants.

One out of every seven jobs and one out of every six businesses in the United States relate to highway transportation in some way.

Pair Of Juveniles Cited For Burglary

Two San Rafael juveniles, 17 and 13, were cited for burglary yesterday by San Rafael police after a beer truck driver complained that a padlock on the back of the truck had been broken and four cases of beer removed.

Several cans from the cases were found near where the truck had been parked at 35 Jordan Street. Both boys were released to their mothers.

In Fair Condition

Elsie Peterson, 75, 417 Turney Street, Sausalito, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with a fractured hip suffered in a fall yesterday at Bridgeway and Caledonia street.

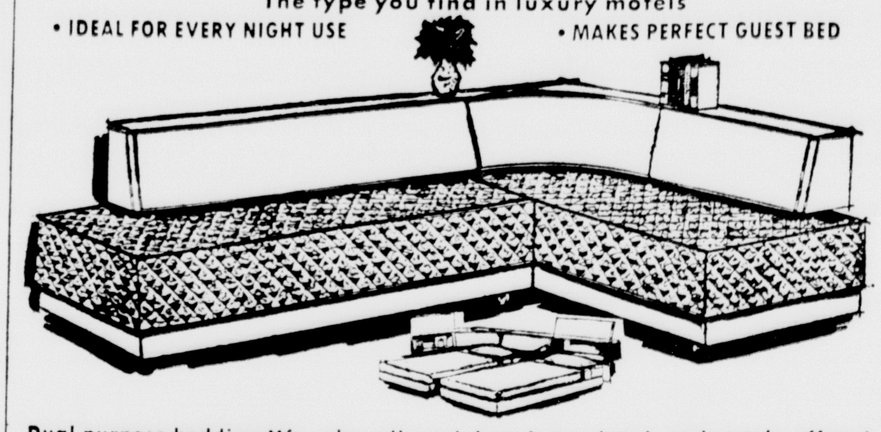

Dead snails tell no tales!

There's no time to warn all of the other snails, slugs, lawn moths, earwigs, sow bugs, ants, chinch bugs, and millipedes that Germain's new granular formula waits almost invisibly between each grass blade to deal certain death with one tiny taste. Suddenly, they're dead—and not a pellet or mound of meal in sight! Germain's Snail, Slug & Insect Killer blends right into your lawn and garden area. All you do is sprinkle it on like salt from our new shaker can. A faster, more effective kill without the fuss and bother of pellets or meal mounds—and it's less attractive to children and pets. Pick up a free sample of Germain's Snail, Slug, & Insect Killer at your local garden supply and try it today!

1967 GRAND PRIX CONVERTIBLE

Hideaway headlights, disappearing windshield wipers, a 350-hp 400 cubic inch V-8 and a new convertible make the Grand Prix more desirable than it's ever been—if you can imagine that!

An elegant way

1967 PONTIAC LE MANS 4-DOOR HARDTOP

It isn't enough that we give you our revolutionary Overhead Cam Six in a beautifully refined new Pontiac Tempest and Le Mans for '67. We go ahead and improve the ride, handling and comfort, too.

A brash way

1967 CATALINA 2-DOOR SEDAN

Besides a new front, new fastback, new inside, new engine and new Wide-Track ride, our new Pontiac Catalina also shares the neatest engineering trick in years—disappearing windshield wipers.

A bold way

What else is new in Wide-Track Country? We're just getting warmed up. Because this is the year we're offering you more Pontiac for your money than ever before.

We've got brave new 400 and 428 cubic inch V-8s. Bold new interiors of fabric and expanded Morrokide. Bright new colors from Silverglaze to Signet Gold. A host of brand new standard safety features such as folding front seat back latches on all two-doors, a dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, the energy absorbing steering column developed by General Motors and a four-way hazard warning flasher.

Options? If we haven't got it, you wouldn't want it. There's our new eight-track stereo tape system, as only Pontiac can make it. Our new front-wheel disc brakes. And our three-speed Turbo Hydra-Matic is now available on the GTO for the first time.

1967 PONTIAC GTO HARDTOP COUPE

If we have to tell you about The Great One (otherwise known as the Pontiac GTO), maybe you just don't like cars. A new 335-hp, 400 cubic inch V-8 is standard. Or you can order it in 255- and 360-hp versions.

And a way that just won't quit

You can choose one of our famous all-synchro floor-mounted stick shifts. Or the self indulging luxury of bi-level Automatic Temperature Control air conditioning for split-level heating and cooling at the same time. We could go on.

And, of course, all Pontiacs boast the road-hugging security of Wide-Track ride and handling. But we need not describe it here. A few moments behind the wheel, with a typically Pontiac power plant under the hood, will tell you more than ten thousand choice four syllable words. You say we've said enough and you're already on your way to your Pontiac dealer? Well hurry. So are a lot of other excited Wide-Track lovers.

Board Splits Over Park In Bel Marin

Directors of Bel Marin Keys Community Service District deadlocked last night on acceptance of a lot for a park, then voted to enlarge the district board from three to five members.

The lot on Caribe Isle was offered as a gift by developer Jack West for use as a community park. The lot has 150 feet of waterfront, 60-foot width on the street side, and is about 100 feet in depth.

Director Roger A. Hicks opposed acceptance, giving among other reasons the cost to the district of maintaining the park. Director James L. Zoeller favored acceptance. William C. Hanson abstained, saying that he lived next door to the lot and would benefit by a park.

The directors decided to canvass district voters on the issue and reach a decision at their Nov. 10 meeting.

The directors voted to apply to the Marin County Elections Board for approval of expanding the board to five members to perhaps avoid future deadlocks.

Board Questions Dam Survey Idea

Directors of the Marin County Soil Conservation District took a cautious stand last night on a request that it share the cost of surveying for a dam on Walker Creek.

Jerome B. Gilbert, general manager of the North Marin County Water District, outlined plans for the proposed dam and requested soil district help with the survey.

The directors, according to district president Waldo Giacomini, said they wanted more information on the cost of the survey and on the effect of the dam on soil conservation.

Several Find Use For Old Ferry Boats

SALEM, Ore. (UPI) —What can you use a second-hand ferry boat for:

Oregon put three now-idle ferries up for sale, and got inquiries from prospective buyers who said they wanted one of the craft for a restaurant, a floating marine supply store, and as a floating bunkhouse for crews drilling off-shore oil wells.

Wind-Whipped Blazes Rake Ventura County

CANOGA PARK (UPI)—Three brush fires, whipped by Santa Ana winds with gusts up to 75 miles an hour, blazed in Southern California today, destroying at least five structures, threatening some 300 homes and a liquid oxygen plant.

One of the fires consumed 1,000 acres in the Santa Susana area of Ventura County's Simi Valley, adjacent to Los Angeles County, and was burning out of control. The blaze apparently was touched off by a power line that was toppled by high winds.

The fire threatened an estimated 200 to 300 homes and burned to within 20 yards of the Rocketdyne liquid oxygen plant in the Santa Susana Mountains before the winds shifted direction.

A fire spokesman said that the plant and the homes were in no immediate danger but that if the winds changed suddenly, "we could be in trouble."

A second fire destroyed three homes and two other structures in the Lakeside Park area just a few hundred yards from the Ventura County line north of this Los Angeles suburb.

The fire was reported contained about 7 a.m. after burning an estimated 50 acres.

The third fire broke out in Orange County, east of Los Angeles, destroying 40 acres and threatening several homes. High winds hampered control, and the area was evacuated.

Annexation Plan Draws 'No' Vote

President Mark Nicolaysen termed the Mill Valley action a "struggle for power and money."

Majority of those at the meeting held their area should remain unincorporated and unannexed. Nine residents favored annexation to Tiburon. Six voted for a previous plan to incorporate a new city to include Strawberry area, Alto and everything north of Highway 101, including Eagle Rock, Bel Aire, Harbor Cove and Bayview Heights. Two members favored Strawberry incorporating separately as a city.

Residents at the meeting felt the arbitrary line at Highway 101 was unrealistic and that more consideration should be given to what people in the area want, said Nicolaysen. He said the association hopes action by the Local Agency Formation Commission can be postponed for a year.

Election of officers was postponed to a future meeting.

Candidates Night For Terra Linda

Terra Linda Community Center will host a candidates' night at 8 p.m. today, when candidates for the Nov. 8 election will speak and answer questions from the audience.

All the candidates for the Terra Linda Recreation-Park District Board are expected to appear.

Other candidates invited to speak at the event, sponsored by the Terra Linda Recreation-Park District, include: Pearce Young and John F. McCarthy, for state senate; Thomas T. Storer and Donald H. Clausen, for congress, and William C. Bagley and James Pokrus, for assembly.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

L'Europe Restaurant May Have Licked Miracle Mile's Jinx

In days gone by, the Miracle Mile — that stretch of divided traffic that ties together San Rafael and San Anselmo — was not particularly known for its kindness to restaurateurs.

I was never quite able to understand this. It seemed to me there were several good spots that would have been accepted by diners with enthusiasm. But in the face of a few failures, restaurant owners became reluctant to take a chance on developing new locations.

Now I believe the jinx, if that's what what it was, has worked itself out, for recent indications among the foodspots along here show an increase of interest and activity.

One of these places, that started out only a few months ago with not much more than a nice little dining room and patio, two young, enthusiastic restaurant men, a plan and a prayer, has started to click. This is Restaurant de l'Europe, just a bit over on the San Rafael side of the San Rafael-San Anselmo line on the westbound lanes.

Fritz Verbourg and Leo Cantayre are the owners—a Dutchman and a Frenchman. They go together like Pat and Mike, fish and chips, lox and bagels, Gleason and Carney.

Fritz is undeniably skilled in his profession of doing clever things with viands, so he is the chef. I don't know how Leo stacks up in a kitchen when left there alone, but he is at home in the dining room and that is his stand at L'Europe. In spite of their youth, both have that restaurant savoir faire that comes only with experience in the right places.

There are about 17 entrees for you to choose from—even if you closed your eyes and jabbed your finger down I imagine you'd come up with a bell ringer. But if you can't make up your mind, let me suggest the curried shrimp Bombay or the sweetbreads saute Grenobloise. Or on a Sunday, the Indonesian special, Nasi Goreng. And if turtle soup is to be had, order that, too. Good wines.

MANKA'S CZECH RESTAURANT at Inverness Lodge was included among "Twenty-two Restaurants Well Worth the Trip" listed in Time magazine's Sept. 23 issue—and now you can't get near the place on weekends unless you make a reservation. So you wouldn't believe me.

WHEN IT COMES to dining in Sausalito, the average Marinite of the central and northern areas immediately thinks of the obvious places — on the waterfront or on the hill. Good dineries—all of them, that's true.

But here are two others which should be included in every diner-out's repertoire: The Seven Seas and Latitude 38. Both are noted for the excellence of their food and other qualities and are conveniently located on the Bridgeway.

The Seven Seas at 683 Bridgeway is no newcomer. Paul and Della De Moss have operated it for a number of years, though for a long time the food service was not featured. Meals are now the principal attraction.

Here seafoods are predominant on the menu. Specialties include such toothsome items as oysters on the half shell, steamed Cherrystone clams, baked filet of sole Marguerite (with crab legs, shrimp and mushrooms, topped with Newburg sauce). And a bouillabaise (lazy man's cioppino) with crab meat, prawns (all out of the shell) and fish, that is out of this world.

Speaking of oysters, you can get them (eastern kind) served other than on the half shell: In a stew, fried or Kirkpatrick—hot, on rock salt—or as a Hangtown fry. Crab comes in various preparations, including Neopolitan style with spaghetti.

Some concession is made to non-fisheaters: chicken, New York steaks, chopped sirloin, burgers, veal scallopini or parmesan and omelettes. Nice wine selection. Take-out service also is provided.

LATITUDE 38 at 621 Bridgeway opened just a little over five months ago and already has become a favorite dinnertime haunt of those in the know, with its unusual maritime decor.

A new menu has just been prepared and there are two new items—teriyaki steak and broiled chicken. And all dinners now include vegetables. The entire carte is limited to 10 entrees—but I won't go into all of them. The whole menu is printed in these pages for your leisurely perusal.

Special note: The cheesecake is homemade by Stan Mulligan's wife Doris and has received plaudits from the multitude. New on the wine list is the Creador from Portugal — a rose buttled in a store container, but not a crackling wine like Lancers. Praised by the enophiles — even those who don't ordinarily select a rose.

Seascapes on the wall are those of William Hoffman.

Latitude 38 has entertainment. Abe Battat plays piano and sings Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. And Primo Kim, jazz pianist and singer, performs Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoons.

GREGORY AND MARY ALYCE SEUBERT have returned from their European holiday and are filled with ideas for new dishes which should soon find their way to the menu at Gregory's in Corte Madera. Could be there'll be something showing by the time you read this.

While they were away, Gregory's was closing on Tuesdays—but that day is an open once again. Now just closed on Mondays.

Marin Dining And Wining

NEW OWNER at the Pink Poodle, 920 B Street, San Rafael, is Pearl Herron. Sure, you've seen her there before. That's where she was working before she bought the place.

Pink Poodle is for early risers —open from 4 a.m. to 8 p.m.

FRAN McKINNEY of Terra Linda is the artist whose paintings are now featured on the walls of the newly reopened Corey's in San Rafael.

Bud Kessler has a completely new operation — a la hofbrau. Try it.

THIS MUST HAVE looked like a hoax. Customer at King Cotton signed a check with the name "Cotton King." Eyebrows were raised, but he had the driver's license to prove it. And so Jim Cotton King of Modesto has joined the luncheon regulars at King Cotton. When he can get here, that is.

THE LIQUOR LICENSE at Di Pietro's cocktail lounge, 1 Vivian Way, San Rafael has been transferred from Ron Hennig and Clayton Stephens to Ronnie Bell and his wife Antoinette. The Bells have taken possession of the place and this weekend Ronnie will be on the serving end so he can tell customers just what he proposes to do.

Briefly it will amount to this: After the weekend is over, Di Pietro's will be shut down for remodelling — opening up the kitchen which has been in disuse, partitioning off and decorating the dining room, and moving in completely new equipment.

When everything has been done over, the place will be reopened sometime between Oct. 25 and Nov. 1 under a new name — Two Bells.

Lunches and dinners will be served — with separate menus. Ronnie is getting a prime rib cart from St. Louis and will work this on the floor himself. Other dinner entrees will include steaks and broiler items, chicken liver brochettes, sweetbread brochettes, low calorie items and some other specialties as Ronnie gets into his stride.

Antoinette will work the floor. Two Bells should turn out to be a nice place — and popular.

SOMETHING IN STATISTICS: Sam's in Tiburon claims to serve about 125,000 hamburgers a year. Take the county's population of say 200,000, deduct 50 per cent for those who don't go to Sam's, and 50 per cent from what's left for those who don't eat hamburgers; add 25,000 for out of towners — and that makes two hamburgers apiece.

What d'ya mean — that's not much? Have you ever seen the size of them?

Guilty Plea Entered On Kidnaping Charge

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Delbert Lee Bettis, 20, Strathmore, Calif., pleaded guilty in the court of U.S. Dist. Judge Gus J. Solomon to kidnaping a Yuba City, Calif. man and bringing him into Oregon.

Bettis said he forced his way into the car of Louis T. McMains in Yuba City, then released him in Grants Pass. Bettis was arrested in Canyonville, Ore.

Vessel Rights Could End Up In The Courts

PACIFICA (AP) — Just who owns the USS Johnson, a decommissioned destroyer escort that snapped a tow line and went aground this week, may be up to the courts.

San Franciscans Paul Farley and Larry Robey boarded the 300-foot craft yesterday, claiming salvage rights.

A San Francisco admiralty lawyer, who asked to remain unnamed, told a reporter he anticipated a legal dispute. He said he understood the ship belonged to the National Steel and Shipbuilding Co. of San Diego when it ground against the Pacific Ocean shore Wednesday.

The ship, with no one aboard, was en route to a San Diego scrap heap when it lost the tug Mariner just south of San Francisco.

Poverty War Records Delaying Some Checks

Aditional federal money coming into Marin County's job training program has caused a backup of bookkeeping work in the county social services (welfare) department, said Donald Sanford, department administrative service officer.

Under the new Title Five of the War on Poverty, counties receive federal funds for work training programs such as the program that has been underway in the Marin department for many months.

The transfer in funding, however, has made some of the recepients unhappy. Five of 12 women enrolled in the program, studying home health care at University of California medical affiliates in San Francisco, appeared yesterday at the county Civic Center demanding promised payment.

They said they were promised an allowance of $25 a month, plus travel expenses, at the start of the six-week course. But they have been going to the school for two weeks and received no pay.

Roy Milner, coordinator for work training, was able to get checks cleared for all 12 women about an hour after they appeared at the Civic Center.

Sanford said another change in the department has shifted much of the clerical work, such as processing welfare applications and payment, from social workers to clerks, causing some delay in routine bookkeeping.

Plea Of Guilty On Petty Theft

John W. Rundle, 19, of 919 Scott Street, Novato, pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court to petty theft from John D. Howard in Novato on May 24.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas scheduled sentencing for 3 p.m. Nov. 1.

Substitue Judge

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court will be substitute judge for the Monterey-Carmel Judicial District in Monterey County for two weeks starting Tuesday, while one of the district's two judges is on vacation.

Townhouse Plan For Tiburon To Be Reviewed

A master plan for a townhouse project on Linda Vista will be considered by the Tiburon Board of Adjustments Monday night.

Tiburon's board of adjustments and board of design review will both meet at the city hall at 8 p.m. — the board of adjustment in the city council chamber, and the design review board in the upstairs library.

Mrs. Lucy Bridge has presented the master plan for the townhouse project. It would require rezoning. She proposes to build 10 units, with a swimming pool.

Alfred J. Casella seeks permission to keep two horses on a three-acre parcel on Round Hill Road between Lyford Drive and Tara Hill Road.

Loan People Hopes Money Run At End

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Executives of the San Francisco Federal Savings and Loan Association hoped today that the $3.55 million run on its Chinatown branch was reversing itself.

The two-day run, touched off by swift-moving rumors the institution was folding, apparently ground to a halt late yesterday with depositors returning more than $30,000 in their accounts.

Association officials said they were "hopeful we will find these people coming back in" after the truth about the gossip spreads through Chinatown.

A total of $2.38 million was withdrawn Wednesday with the rest being taken out early Thursday. More than a thousand depositors were involved.

The association blamed persons angry with J.K. Choy, vice president and general manager of the branch, with spreading the rumors. Association spokesman said the malicious gossip had no basis in fact. They added the S.F. Federal's assets totaled $203 million.

Meanwhile, the state attorney general's office began an investigation of the run. Deputy Atty. Gen. Marshall Mayer said it was a violation of state law to spread a false rumor against the solvency of any California financial institution.

The cheetah is the swiftest mammal. Its bursts of speed have been clocked at 71 miles per hour.

Stiff Sentence Given On Drunken Driving

Michael Tracy Horan, 30, of 225 Nova Albion Way, San Rafael, was fined $230 and placed on a year's probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested June 18 by California Highway Patrol on Highway 101.

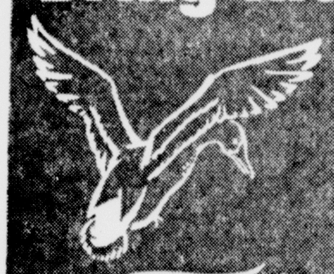

John Henry Pope, 51, Santa Rosa, was fined $200, also for drunken driving. The patrol arrested him on Highway 101 Oct. 1.

OL' MISS MEANDERINGS

On the Natchez trace in Mississippi, where Jim Bowie first tested the steel of his famous knife and the great Mississippi river flows lazily southward, faded ghosts of the confederacy still waltz to the haunting strains of "Dixie."

For more than 30 years, in March, people from miles around gather in historic Natchez for the annual 30-day "Natchez Pilgrimage." They walk through halls of homes that once looked down on America's great, savor the smell of woodsmoke hanging in trees laden with Spanish moss, feast their eyes on lush gardens and revel in a tableaux that brings the great days of the old south to life again.

General U.S. Grant once had dinner at Richmond Plantation, one of the close to 30 homes opened to visitors each year for the pageant. At another, The Briars, Confederate President Jefferson Davis married Virginia Howell. At still another, Springfield, Andrew Jackson's turbulent marriage to Rachel Robards began.

The time when cotton was king and cotton's masters lived like emperors is recreated each night. Men in Confederate uniforms and women in hooped skirts swirl across the dance hall floor and James Audubon, naturalist and dance master who once studied at Natchez, once again holds his dance classes.

It's a 30-day sentimental journey into the grandeur of yesterday—a gentle, lovely reminder that "Time takes all but memories."

Swirl of tailcoats and hooped skirts at the Natchez Pageant brings to life the gay past of pre-Civil War Mississippi.

Trading Moderate, Market Down A Bit

NEW YORK (AP)—Weakness in General Motors featured a mild stock market decline today. Trading was moderate at the close.

GM lost 3 points or so as the street responded to estimates which downgraded third-quarter earnings.

Cigarette stocks were strong all day, keeping most of their gains even after an expert toned down an earlier statement he made which spoke of a "breakthrough" in research on cigarette smoking and cancer.

Liggett & Myers was ahead more than 2 points in late dealings. Lorillard, Philip Morris and American Tobacco held gains of a point or so. The rest of the list was thoroughly scrambled.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.6 million shares compared with 8.68 million yesterday.

Cigarette stocks remained substantially higher. They rallied on a report that a scientist had isolated a major cancer-causing element in cigarette smoke.

Up about 3 were Liggett and Myers and Philip Morris. Gains of 2 or more were shown by American Tobacco, Lorillard and Reynolds Tobacco.

Group strength elsewhere in the list was dissipated.

General Motors was weak, dropping 3 in heavy trading which made it a likely candidate for most-active stock.

Down a point or more were U.S. Steel, Jones and McLaughlin, Zenith, General Electric, and Fairchild Camera.

Up 2 or better were Paramount Pictures, Texas Instruments, Insurance Co. of North America and Houston Light & Power.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Very Fine Legacy For Diversification

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "A college senior, headed for graduate school next year, I would like your opinion on a recent inheritance, consisting of 50 shares of Allegheny Power, 50 shares of Energy Fund and 25 shares of Am. Metal Climax. I also own 40 shares of Allied Chemical. Have I sufficient diversification? Should I switch anything for better growth?" R. F.

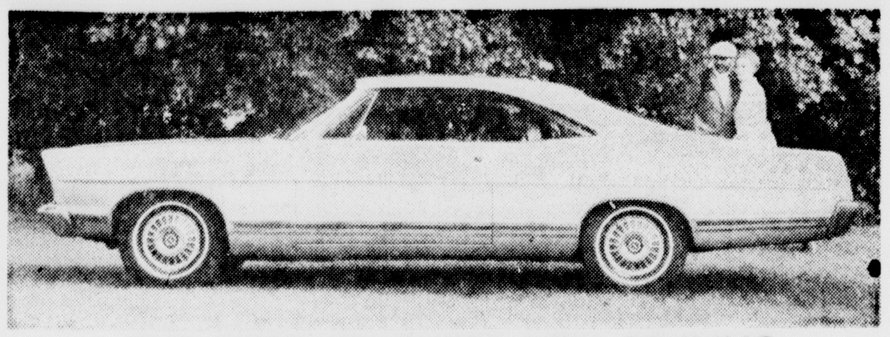

A. Congratulations on your fine legacy. Inasmuch as Energy Fund and Allegheny Power System derive their profits from some overlapping areas of activity, it seems desirable to hold Energy Fund and to switch from Allegheny into an entirely different industry. I suggest for your consideration Boise Cascade, Chesebrough-Pond's, Standard Brands or Franklin Life Insurance. Energy Fund's portfolio is broadly diversified among utilities, gas and oil, electronics, metals and airlines.

Hold A.M. Metal Climax fir its long-range growth potential, especially molybdenum and aluminum. Near term its affiliation with African copper mining is a speculative factor that could temporarily cause a drop in share earnings. Allied Chemical could be switched for faster growth into FMC Corp., or American Cyanamid. Each offers considerable diversity in its product mix and will continue your stake in the chemical industry.

Q. "I have $4,500 invested in H bonds which mature in December. Would you advise me to turn in these bonds or hold them? If I hold them, do I have to notify the government?" L. F.

A. No, it is not necessary to report your decision to hold your bonds. Your interest checks will continue without interruption. However, if you decide to redeem them, you should notify the Federal Reserve Bank in your district and include the essential information about your bonds.

Your decision depends on your financial needs — readily available cash for use in emergency, or more income than the bonds provide. If the latter, the bonds should be redeemed and the cash reinvested in some of the income stocks recently recommended in the column.

1967 FORD FEATURES NEW STYLING

The 1967 Ford has received a major sheet metal change—the line's third in three years. Pictured here is the X L two-door hardtop which offers Ford's select shift Cruise-O-Matic transmission as standard equipment. All Ford models are on display in Marin at Ames Ford Sales, San Rafael; J and B Ford Sales, Corte Madera; and L. J. Dervin Ford Co., Novato.

THUNDERBIRD FOR 1967 HAS CHANGED LOOK

New Ford Thunderbirds feature a long hood line, shorter rear deck and recessed air-scoop type intake grille. The four-door Landau model above has a vinyl covered roof, ventless side windows and retractable headlights. Thunderbird is now being shown in Marin at Ames Ford Sales, San Rafael; L. J. Dervin Ford Co., Novato; and J and B Ford Sales, Corte Madera.

Today is Friday, Oct. 14, the 287th day of 1966 with 78 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter. The morning stars are Mars and Jupiter. The evening star is Saturn.

Dwight D. Eisenhower was born on this day in 1890.

On this day in history:

In 1066, the Normans defeated King Harold and his English forces in the Battle of Hastings.

In 1912, former President Theodore Roosevelt was shot in Milwaukee and refused to have the wound treated until he delivered a scheduled speech. He recovered.

In 1933, Nazi Germany announced it would withdraw from the League of Nations at the end of 1934.

In 1949, Russian occupation authorities set up an East German puppet state with headquarters in East Berlin.

A thought for the day — Russian novelist Ivan Turgeniev said: "I agree with no man's opinion. I have some of my own."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

South Goofs, Watches Slam Go Down Before The Start

"I hate to lose points on a good hand," South declared after he had gone down at six spades.

"You can't help losing with bad cards, but it seems unnatural to lose with good cards." Unnatural was not the word for it.

Declarer tried the heart finesse at the first trick, losing to the king, and East returned a diamond to dummy's queen.

QUICK MOVE

West over ruffed, and the slam was down before South could get started.

"It was very unlucky," South pointed out. "I'd be all right if the clubs broke evenly, or if the player with short clubs did not have the king of spades. It isn't my night."

It wasn't South's night, but the hand was not unlucky.

The spade finesse would have worked if South had played the hand properly. South needed very little else to make the slam.

WASTES QUEEN

South then leads the queen of spades for a finesse, continuing for three rounds until trumps have been drawn.

Declarer can then take the top clubs and ruff a club.

He gets to dummy with the king of diamonds to ruff another club, and dummy is then good for rest of the tricks.

South would make his slam with ease if dummy's queen of diamonds were the deuce. His bad luck consisted of having more high cards than he needed.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four hearts. This shows very good trump support (usually five or more cards), with a side singleton or void suit and no more than 9 points in high cards.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Marin Parties To Precede St. Stephen's Ball In City

By MOLLY MARIN

A number of parties are being planned before St. Stephen's 10th Anniversary Ball at the St. Francis Yacht Club Oct. 21. Mr. and Mrs. Ian Landon-Lane of Belvedere will entertain the New Zealand Consul General and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Hale of San Francisco, and Messrs. and Mesdames William Barry, Ted Bjerkin, Ian Back, John Barnes, Peter Sutter and Chester Bunnell.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Atkin of Belvedere are planning a cocktail party prior to the big supper - dance. Guests will include Messrs. and Mesdames James Walsh, Alex Post, Thomas Carnes, William Lukens and Mark Mullin.

COMBINING FORCES are the Mervin Fields and Dick De Berrys of Belvedere, who will greet friends at the Field home. Invited to this affair are Dr. and Mrs. Donald Walker, Messrs. and Mesdames William R. Davis, James Zeigler, J. Randolph Elliott, David Walker, Alan Cundall, Al Trobbe, J. Paul Silvestri Jr. and William Johnstone.

The Tiburon home of Mr. and Mrs. James Harmon will be the scene of gathering which includes the Kirk Bassetts, Willard Pittmans and Arthur Grahams.

The James Wilhites of Belvedere will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Engelhart of Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd D. Rees of Orinda, former Marinites and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson of Corte Madera before the party. The group will share a table at the yacht club.

BEING HONORED at a round of parties is bride-elect Robin Allan Tyler of Mill Valley, who will be married on Oct. 29 to Carlos Lanas-Rubio of San Francisco at Mission San Rafael Arcangel. Tomorrow her maid of honor, Rosa Smario of Sonoma, has invited 15 guests to a shower to be held at her home. Wednesday night 10 close friends attended a shower given by Mrs. Richard Whittington of Corte Madera at the Mill Valley home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Casson. Last Saturday Robin was surprised at her own home by 20 friends at a miscellaneous shower given by her sister, Mrs. Jack Ogren of Dublin and sister-in-law, Mrs. Kirk Tyler of Castro Valley.

MRS. CHESTER I. DENNIS and Mrs. Donn Bolthouse, both of Mill Valley, will honor bride-elect Merrilee White at a shower and tea at the home of Mrs. Dennis at 3 p.m. on Oct. 29. Merrilee, who is the daughter of retired British Consul Raymond White and Mrs. White of San Francisco, formerly of Sausalito, will be married to Michael Cate of San Francisco on Nov. 19 at Christ Church in Sausalito. Twenty-five guests have been invited to the tea. Pouring tea will be Mrs. John Churchill and Miss Iris de Luce.

MARINITES ON hand tomorrow evening for the Harvard - Yale - Princeton - Dartmouth scholarship ball at Burlingame Country Club will include the Benjamin Webbs of Kentfield, Denis T. Rices of Tiburon, Richard E. Herndons of Kentfield and Howard D. Bankses of Mill Valley. The latter is Yale chairman and Ben Webb is Dartmouth chairman, while Mr. Herndon is Princeton chairman.

MRS. ERNEST M. HARTMANN and Mrs. Richard D. Jackson entertained at a briday shower on Wednesday evening honoring Allene Mossman, fiancee of H. Reed Volin Jr. Among the 15 invited guests are classmates who graduated from Dominican College with Allene, as well as Dominican alumnae friends of the hostesses.

MR. AND MRS. MARK NOBLE have invited the Harvey Blacks, Donald Westerbekes, Robert Valentines, Henry Jacobsens, John Hoffmires and Val Arnold for cocktails in Belvedere.

Others who have made reservations for the elegant evening are Messrs. and Mesdames Philip Erlich Jr., David

Novato AAUW To Sponsor Program On Middle East

Mrs. Bernice Behrens of San Francisco will be guest speaker following a dinner at The Lodge in Novato in honor of the 20th anniversary of United Nations Day.

The Novato Branch of the American Assn. of University Women and the Novato Community Ambassadors will be hosts for the evening with dinner to be served at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Behrens, nationally known lecturer, world traveler and fashion authority is a member of various U. N. committees. She will be making her first lecture in Marin County. Her subject will be the Eastern Mediterranean and the Holy Land. Mrs. Behrens will present her observations of the customs, hopes and ultimate goals of the people there and information gained from interviews with women leaders in those countries.

She will present costumes of the countries and their histories as well as costumes she has collected from the East, Western Europe, South America and the Iron Curtain countries. Local women will model the costumes.

MRS. BERNICE BEHRENS

Ticket chairman is John A. Trumbull, United Nations Day chairman in Novato.

Marin Women

Christmas Cards Offered To Aid Marin Heart Assn.

Distinctive Christmas Cards are being offered by the Marin County Heart Assn. for the holiday season. The annual project, now in its sixth year, offers a choice of three designs created exclusively for the Heart group.

Scenes include a San Francisco cable car setting in magenta and gold tones; a Christmas tree with heart baubles, and a satellite scene reflecting a panorama of San Francisco Bay in hues of blue. Available in multiples of 25, the cards may also be ordered with one-line imprints.

Beal Willcutt, director of Marin County Heart Assn., San Rafael, can supply further details. Proceeds support research work in heart and blood vessel projects sponsored by the Marin County Heart Assn. of San Rafael.

Belvedere Women Are Named To Committee

Mesdames John L. Merrill and Kirk Underhill of Belvedere are assisting with arrangements for the opening night performance of the Royal Highland Fusiliers to be sponsored by the San Francisco Branch of the English-Speaking Union on Nov. 4.

The benefit which will be held at the Winterland Arena at 8:30 p.m., will aid the Union's scholarship fund.

Social Events Planned For Tri-County Orchid Showing

Several social events are planned in connection with the benefit Tri-County Orchid Show presented by Marin, Napa and Santa Rosa Orchid Societies at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon, Oct. 21 through 23. The show is sponsored by the Shark Lions Club of Belvedere-Tiburon, and all proceeds will be used for charitable work in the community.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony will open the show at 8 p.m. on Oct. 21, to be followed by a champagne preview until 10 p.m. A special feature of the evening will be the presentation of a newly hybridized orchid, named in her honor, to Rosette Savorgnan, wife of Dr. Alessandro Savorgnan, Consul General of Italy. The new orchid was developed by the Rod McLellan Co., orchid growers of South San Francisco.

ON OCT. 22, at 12:30 p.m. the Shark Lions Club will host a United Nations Day luncheon, to which delegates from the Orchid Digest Corporation have been invited. Master of ceremonies for the luncheon is William L. Howell of Belvedere, chairman of international relations for Lions International District 3-C2. He will introduce Dr. Savorgnan, Consul General of Italy. A past international director, Maurice Perstein, will speak briefly of the participation of the Lions International in the formation of the United Nations Organization, and its 10th anniversary in San Francisco. The principal speaker will be Sr. Adolfo G. Dominguez, Consul General of Mexico, and retiring dean of the San Francisco Consular Corps. He will talk of his membership in the Lions International for the past 19 years in the United States and Mexico.

Mrs. Rosette Savorgnan will be introduced to the luncheon guests and the new orchid named for her will be formally presented by Mrs. Paul O'Flaherty of Belvedere, general chairman of the Tri-County Orchid Show.

THE MARIN Orchid Society will be host to the directors of the Orchid Digest Corporation, who will hold their semi-annual meeting on Oct. 22, with a no-host dinner planned that evening. Delegates are expected from many areas of the Western United States. The society will also host the judges.

THE SHOW will be open to the public on Oct. 22 and 23 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer of San Anselmo is social activities chairman; Albert F. Kosh of San Rafael is registrations chairman; David Lapidus of San Anselmo is chief clerk of judging; Mrs. Forrest Slack of Corte Madera, secretary; and Mrs. Albert Kosh of San Rafael, publicity chairman.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Stalwart Bachelor Is Tired Of Being Thrown At Dear Daughters

DEAR HELEN:

I am a bachelor by preference but the world is against me. Helen, you have no idea the persistence of the old dames who throw their darling daughters at me. And the daughters keep throwing hints too.

Please tell them for me and all bachelors — we'll get married the day a young filly can prove she won't grow into an old nag. — STALWART STALLION

DEAR STALLION:

. . . And she just may accept, the day you can prove a stalwart stallion won't grow into a conceited old mule! — H.

DEAR HELEN:

You told "Human Too" to be thankful for the stinkers bebecause they make good conversation pieces, even while they make life miserable for clerks.

Not when they get you fired! I had a summer job in a grocery store. In this particular store, if a customer complains, she gets a hundred free trading stamps. Well, this woman told the manager I was rude, collected her stamps, and I was out of a job! He wouldn't even listen to my side.

For all that woman knew, I might have been supporting a family. Thank goodness I was not, but I was trying to earn money for college.

I agree, there are some really great customers, such as the one who told the manager I had been her favorite clerk. But he wouldn't listen to her. What burns me is "the customer is always right" even if she is a liar.

I won't mention the people who sneak out with things, or the men who give you a tongue lashing because the person ahead of them is slow.

I'm not sorry I worked in the supermarket. I learned a lot about the cruelty — and also the kindness — of people. But I'll never forget the crushing blow of being fired. So don't say "be thankful for the stinkers" until you know how it feels. — LYNDE

DEAR LYNDE:

I know how it feels, and I still say "be thankful for the stinkers." They can hurt like blazes, but they also make you so mad you try harder for success — just to prove them wrong. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

We are the grandparents and guardians of a near-17-year-old boy. He wants us to sign his application for a driver's license. He has passed his driver training class with good rating and is a responsible fellow.

However, at our ages, we feel we would be jeopardizing our security in case of a law suit if he caused a wreck. What they ask nowadays is far above the insurance carried.

This has led to harsh feelings. Would we be held responsible and liable if he were involved in a law suit? — ANXIOUS GRANDPARENT

DEAR GRANDPARENT:

As legal guardians of a minor — yes, you are responsible for his actions.

But if he is a responsible fellow, a careful driver — and you have adequate insurance — couldn't you take a chance?

P.S. Insist that he earn the extra insurance required when a male driver under 25 takes the wheel, and also that he help out on gas and upkeep. This will slow him down considerably. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

My sister is paralyzed from a brain tumor but loves to receive mail. Letters would greatly cheer: Ida Price, c/o Ivy Hall Nursing Home, 301 Watauga Avenue, Elisabethton, Tennessee. —MRS. F.E.M.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen Help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Nursery School President Enjoys Organization Work

MRS. PAUL HUGHES

Fund raising parties and other projects for organizations in which she is interested are what she enjoys most, says Mrs. Paul Heron Hughes, new president of the Mill Valley Cooperative Nursery School. A book fair this fall for the school is her current concern.

A member two years, Grace Hughes served as treasurer last year.

She is active as a volunteer at Marin General Hospital and as a member of Pixie Parents. Last year she headed a fund raising party for the Alliance for Health directed by Dr. Richard Hahn.

Grace's other interests are free lance fashion coordinating and handling publicity for organizations to which she belongs.

A graduate of the College of Marin, she and her husband, a right of way agent for the Division of Highways of the State of California, have lived in Marin 16 years and have two children, Jolie, 5, and David, 3.

Other officers serving with the new president are Mesdames J. B. Decker, vice president; Ernest Conway, secretary; George Omi, treasurer; and William Woodbridge, membership chairman.

Alpha Omicron Pi's Officer Is Adept At Decorative Art

A color consultant and interior designer, Mrs. Walter Bertin Clausen of San Rafael, is the new president of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority Alumnae in Marin.

Muriel Clausen, who has been associated with the Marin Chapter for over four years, was formerly a member of the Berkeley chapter. She and her husband, a consulting structural engineer, are the parents of Ronald Clausen, 19, a junior at University of California in Davis and Kersey Clausen, 17, a senior at San Rafael High School.

Projects for the club year include a luncheon and fashion show to be held at the Meadow Club in the spring with the Mannequin League modeling.

Muriel, a member of the Mothers Club of Theta Xi at Davis, was graduated from University of California in Los Angeles with a degree in psychology and University of California in Berkeley with a master's degree in decorative art.

Thursday Musical Will Open Season

The Thursday Musical Club will open the fall season on Oct. 20 at 2:30 p.m. with a bassoon and piano concert to be held at the home of Mrs. Babcock Smith in Del Mesa. Walter Green, bassoonist, will be accompanied by William C. Clark, pianist.

Mr. Green was educated in Salt Lake City. He also spent two years with the U.S. Army in Vienna, where he studied with Karl Ohlberger, first bassoonist with the Vienna Philharmonic; attended the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N.Y. and has held positions with the Utah Symphony, Indianapolis Symphony and the San Francisco Symphony and Opera orchestras since 1956. He presented solo performances with Indianapolis Symphony and with the San Francisco Symphony. His program will include compositions by Sammartini-Oubradous, Johann Ernst Galliard, Paul Hindemith, Burrill Phillips and Wolfgang Mozart.

William Clark received a B.A. degree at Columbia University and M.A. from Juiliard School of Music. He came to California in 1959 and began teaching in Corte Madera where he resides with his family.

A tea will follow the program, with Mrs. William Mackay serving as chairman, assisted by Mesdames Arthur Walters, Alfred Kuehl, Fred Stribling, Marion Scott. Mrs. Peter Palmer, program, will introduce the artists and Mrs. Edward Hindley, president, will greet the members and their guests.

Josephine Ritchey To Wed Charles Glass In January

Maj. and Mrs. George W. Ritchey of Novato are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Josephine Mary, to Charles E. Glass.

The bride-elect, who is a stewardess with United Airlines, was graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in Portland, Ore., and College of Marin. Timothy Ritchey of Novato is her brother.

The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Glass of Penngrove, was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and attends College of Marin. Mrs. Minerva Wheeler of San Francisco is his grandmother.

The wedding will be held on Jan. 31 at the Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

Tomorrow's Independent-Journal Marin Magazine is a "doubleheader." In addition to the regular weekend supplement with its features and photos, you will receive the special Fall Home Furnishings section that has become an I-J tradition. Its 28 pages are packed with stories, pictures and advertisements that will bring you up-to-date on the latest trends in furniture and home decoration.

The regular I-J Saturday magazine section will feature an article on one of Marin County's most colorful and most popular musical organizations—the Hamilton Air Force Base Fourth Air Force Band. The military musicians are prize-winners at many West Coast parades and celebrations. But, as you will learn from tomorrow's story, the bandsmen are called upon to do more than just play music and march.

MARIN FILM FARE

From Mailer To Disney, On Screen

By LES DARD

Whether your objective this weekend is relaxation, excitement, laughs or tears, there's something in store for you at the movies. Let's see what the Marin area has to offer:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Norman Mailer's recent controversial bestseller "An American Dream" is now on screen. It's a tale of gross materialism in the hands of big business and big underworld that Stuart Whitman, Janet Leigh, Eleanor Parker, Murray Hamilton, Barry Sullivan, Lloyd Nolan and Susan Denberg.

Whitman plays a Medal of Honor winner, now a crusading television performer, who is strongly suspected of murdering his wife. The vigorous, saccato pace of the film snaps the events and characters through police interrogation, court proceedings and up to a somewhat tragic conclusion.

Miss Leigh creates a fascinating portrayal of a mob chieftan's "girl-friend." Miss Parker spits and growls as Whitman's wife and Barry Sullivan is convincing as the police chief. The photography lends a rich, warm mood that is entirely fitting.

RAFAEL THEATER

Family fare is now showing with Walt Disney's latest — a rousing adventure, "The Fighting Prince of Donegal."

It's based on an intriguing bit of history. Back in the time of England's first Elizabeth, the Irish were, as usual, being harassed by English overlords. The film's focus is on the now legendary prince of Donegal — Red Hugh, so called for his flaming hair.

The result of all this is a dashing, action packed show complete with prison dugeons and daring escapes. Just to balance things off, there's a touch of romance included, in the very attractive person of Susan Hampshire.

NOVATO THEATER and 101 DRIVE - IN

Now on screen is Blake Edward's newest, and perhaps wildest, laugh-fest: "What Did You Do In The War, Daddy?"

A U. S. Army company during World War II is detailed to put an Italian village out of action. The Americans find the town held by Italian troops, quite willing to surrender without a fight. But before the Americans take over there is to be a joint festival.

As the rule book U. S. Captain we see Dick Shawn, and as his somewhat lighter-hearted counterpart on the Italian side, there's Sergio Fantoni. James Coburn and Aldo Ray are delightful as two of Shawn's disrespectful warriors.

LARK THEATER

Holding over is the current British black and white comedy of high acclaim, "The Wrong Box." John Mills, Ralph Richardson, Michael Caine, Nanette Newman and Peter Sellers take the big roles in a big comic effort aimed at all ages.

MOTOR MOVIES

On for this weekend only is the masterful "The Spy Who Came In From the Cold," a critical look at the grey, murky world inhabited by sordid little people licensed to maim society under the auspices of freedom and democracy.

Richard Burton takes the title role of the seasoned, cynical British espionage agent whose immediate assignment is to destroy the head of East German intelligence. He is ably assisted by Oskar Werner, Claire Bloom and Cyril Cusak.

NORTHGATE THEATER

Gregory Peck teams up with Sophia Loren in "Arabesque," an intriguing new suspense entry now playing.

An unlikely hero, Peck is called in by an Arab millionaire to decode a message written in hieroglyphics.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Cary Grant is funny, debonair and romantic in "Walk, Don't Run," now playing. He plays a wealthy British businessman who comes to Tokyo, only to encounter the housing shortage caused by the Olympics. The only place he can locate is a "apartment to share" owned by pretty, single Samantha Eggar.

SEQUOIA THEATER

FAIRFAX THEATER

A grim and shattering experience in itself, this film depicts a man who believes he has reason enough to withdraw from humanity.

State FFA Team Wins Top Honors

Competing against teams from 42 other states, the California team from Hanford Joint Union High School, Hanford, won the livestock judging trophy. Members of the team were Daniel Dooley, Leonard Souza and Charles Castles. Their coach was Thomas A. Mora.

Swiss Travelogue Due Next At College

A new travel film on Switzerland will be presented next Thursday at 8:15 p.m. at Olney Hall in College of Marin.

The 90-minute color movie is part of the series of travel and adventure films presented jointly by the Explorers Club of San Francisco and the Associated Students of the college as a scholarship fund benefit.

Sherry In Show

An oil painting, "White Skiff," by William Grant Sherry of Corte Madera will be included in the 25th annual exhibition of the Society of Western Artists at the M. H. De Young Museum in San Francisco. The show opens next Friday and runs through Nov. 20.

Conservationists Challenge Bolinas Lagoon Plan

BY FRANK FARRARA

Marin Conservation League leaders last night sharply challenged the proposed $2.2 million development plan for Bolinas Lagoon, including expansion of an existing island and berths for 1,400 boats.

They questioned the scope of the play at a hearing held by the Bolinas Harbor District Commission at Civic Center. About 60 persons attended.

Mrs. T. C. Wellman, president of the Marin Conservation League, described the plan as "away out thing now." She urged the commission to hear from the league and other organizations before adopting it.

Gene McDaniel, harbor commission chairman, said the decision probably will be made by the end of the year. In the meantime, he said, "this thing's wide open."

Mrs. T. J. Donnelly, second vice president of the league, said, "Why do we have to have this?"

McDaniel said the main purpose of the project is to preserve the lagoon, which is silting up. "It would be disastrous to have it become a meadow."

Mrs. Donnelly questioned the spending of $2.2 million "to provide boating for a small segment of the people."

Architect Norman Gilroy, who designed the plan, said it would cost more than $1 million "just to keep the lagoon as a body of water."

Gilroy's plan to expand Kent Island with spoils from dredging was criticized by David J. Tirrell of Bolinas.

The lagoon would not be preserved with such a land mass, he said. "It would effectively destroy the feeling of a large body of water."

Gilroy said that his plan would increase the water area from 200 acres to 400 acres, and create a flushing action that would overcome the siltation problem.

"The lagoon as it exists is not an open body of water," Gilroy said.

Under Gilroy's proposal about 2.5 million cubic yards of mud would be dredged from the lagoon and re-located, some to create new islands and some to expand the existing island.

Clifford Hanssen, league first vice president, said the district should "start with the least work."

Gilroy said that the first phase work is mainly to control siltation and "has to be done almost in its entirety to create a balance." There could be 350 berts or fewer in the initial development and the remainder of the island could be used for beach park area, he said.

If the plan were completed, the island would have berths for 1,000 boats, a beach park, swimming area, restaurants, hotel, harbor offices, marine shopping mall, boat sales, sport fishing and boat rental facilities. The island would be connected to the east shore by a toll bridge.

There also would be boat berths at the southeast corner of the lagoon, in the vicinity of an existing island.

The northern one-third of the lagoon area would be preserved as a wildlife refuge, Gilroy said. The development also would provide a harbor of refuge, which is needed in the area, he said.

Gilroy said there might be federal funds available for a harbor of refuge, the Army Corps of Engineers might participate in the dredging on a 50-50 basis, or the State Small Craft Harbor Division might furnish a loan. Revenues from the development would be enough to support a $2 million loan, he said.

Mrs. Wellman described the lagoon as a "jewel of Marin," and questioned opening it up "for commercial development in the center."

McDaniel said the harbor district was formed to preserve the lagoon from private developers. "There once was a chance that private people could take it over and make it another Coney Island," he said. "We have a mandate to develope boating."

Gilroy said boating is increasing at a greater rate than expected, and berths for 2,400 boats could be justified economically.

The lagoon will be the water gateway to the Point Reyes National Seashore, and growth will come to the area, he said.

The plan "is flexible and can grow with the growth of the community," he declared.

Federal Probe In McGoran's Arrest Sought

Dist. Atty. Bales Sends Letter With Articles From I-J

A federal investigation of the circumstances surrounding the arrest last October of John H. McGoran of Corte Madera has been requested by Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales.

Bales asked for the investigation in a letter to U.S. Atty. Cecil Poole in San Francisco. He enclosed a series of articles in the Independent-Journal which dealt with the McGoran case.

McGoran was arrested following a brawl in the Confucius Restaurant in the Bon Air Shopping Center in Greenbrae and was jailed on a string of charges.

INSISTS BEATING

McGoran, however, insisted he was wrongly arrested and that the arresting Larkspur police beat him with fists, a night stick and a pistol, and denied him medical attention when he said he was having a heart attack.

For nearly a year, McGoran sought without success for an impartial investigation of the case and finally turned to the Independent-Journal.

CITIZEN'S RIGHTS

McGoran said he was not only concerned with the manner of his arrest, but with what appeared to him to be an unwillingness of the district attorney's office to protect a citizen's rights when police officers were involved and when a city in Marin might be liable for damages.

In his letter to Poole, Bales noted that the U.S. Attorney's office had jurisdiction over allegations of local police brutality. Bales asked for "a full investigation of the entire matter" and wrote, "I feel there may be some merit in the contention that an independent and final hearing of this defendant's (McGoran's) charges should be held."

ABAG Denies Marin's Plea For A Delay

Marin County's attempt to get the Assn. of Bay Area Governments to delay consideration of a committee report urging limited regional government failed last night.

Byron W. Leydecker, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, appeared before the association's executive committee in Berkeley, to ask a delay of two months before the controversial recommendation goes to a general meeting.

'TIME TOO SHORT'

He called the report "too modest in its recommendations, too restricted in its discussion, and too defensive in its philosophy."

"The problems are too great and the time is too short."

The executive committee disregarded the plea and voted 9 to 4 to approve, in principle, the limited regional government proposal from its goals and organizations committee.

Among the nine voting for was William Jack Adams of Novato, representing Marin's cities. Leydecker voted against as alternate for Peter H. Behr, Marin's county delegate.

The report will go to the ABAG general assembly on Nov. 4, when delegates will be asked to recommend that the 1967 State Legislature establish the regional government.

Leydecker predicted today that meeting "will be a wild affair."

MASS TURNOUT

Marin County supervisors will discuss their next move in the super-government controversy at their Oct. 25 meeting. "We'll probably go to the general assemly en masse," said Leydecker.

Marin County was not the only objector present at last night's meeting. Alameda County representatives also appeared to protest the proposal.

In his prepared statement Leydecker said, "Marin County Board of Supervisors feel the regional government should include a popularly elected governing board. The proposal in its present form envisions a board once-removed from the voter and this is not acceptable to the Marin County Board of Supervisors."

Harmony Reigns At Park Hearing

A public hearing last night brought no protest and few people to see plans for development of the one-acre Descanso Park site in Gallinas Village.

"Those who were there seemed quite enthusiastic," said Mrs. Marguerite Clark, secretary of the Gallinas Village Community Services District.

Development proposed by the district a year ago for planting lawn on the Rosal Way Park brought loud and long protest, and the proposal was finally dropped.

Last night's plan for the Descanso Way property was prepared by landscape architect Henry Cole of San Rafael. Cost for the development, including a tennis court, tot lot and grassed picnic area, is estimated at $44,000.

Directors asked Cole to find out what might be deleted or deferred to get the cost down, and another meeting at John MacPhail School for 8 p.m. next Thursday.

At that time, Mrs. Clark said, directors will probably approve the plan and set a time to open work bids. County supervisors will decide Tuesday whether $10,000 in county funds should be donated to the district for the district.

Mrs. Clark said directors should know Thursday what chance there is of getting federal aid for the development.

Directors last night agreed that something must be done to improve drainage on Descanso Way near the park. Directors Frank Peccorini and Walter Rudolph, who appeared earlier in the evening before director of Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District, reported that district board is willing to cooperate. Mrs. Clark said engineering help will also be asked of the county public works department.

Mrs. Clark was asked to write the Federal Housing Authority, requesting that Gallinas Village be considered as one qualifying for home improvement loans. "This is part of the effort to upgrade the area," Mrs. Clark said.

Tomales Site Committee To Be Picked

The Tomales High School District board last night set for Oct. 24 a special meeting to appoint a site selection committee for a new high school.

The present school building has failed to meet the earthquake safety standard under the Field Act of 1933 and is to be replaced.

Last night the board received a petition signed by more than 150 residents asking that the new building be located farther south than Tomales. The petition also requested that in the meantime students be sent other high schools on a tuition basis.

The board announced it would appoint a bond election committee at the special meeting Oct. 24 at 8 p.m.

The Tomales High School District Board also:

1. Increased school lunch prices for students from $1.25 to $1.30 a week.

2. Declined to act on a suggestion by Supt. Anthony Matulich that it consider a general fund tax increase.

3. Authorized purchase of a special California school multi-coverage insurance policy at a cost of $201 over three years.

4. Approved a revised method of evaluating teachers' performance.

Doubling Up Not Needed At Schools

Double sessions will not be necessary in either Bolinas or Stinson Beach Schools, principal Keith Oveson reported today.

The possibility of double sessions was raised Wednesday night when district trustees learned a classroom at Stinson Beach and a classroom and the library at Bolinas School failed to meet earthquake-resistance requirements of the state's Field Act. The board voted to close all three rooms.

As of Monday, Oveson said, second grade will shift to Bolinas School's kindergarten room, and kindergarten will shift to Stinson Beach School's first grade room.

The second grade schedule will move back a half-hour to run from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. because of bus schedules, and kindergarten will be from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. instead of from 9 a.m. to noon.

"This will not interrupt our instruction program," Oveson said, "and the immediate inconvenience will be smoothed out in a short time." Oveson thanked parents "for their cooperation in this emergency."

Addition of two classrooms last spring at Bolinas School provided enough space to limit shifts to two classrooms, he said.

Engle and Engle, San Rafael structural engineers, estimated the cost of bringing the three rooms up to requirements at $31,000. Trustees will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Bolinas School to consider how the job is to be financed.

Open House To Fete Pair's Anniversary

Clara and Edgar Rovelstad, 880 Tamalpais Avenue, Novato, will celebrate their golden wedding Sunday with an open house for friends in their home.

They will have been married 50 years on Tuesday.

The reception, from 2 to 5 p.m., will be hosted by the Rovelstads' daughter (their only child) and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart of San Francisco.

The Rovelstads met at a dance in Elgin, Ill., and courted three years before marrying. Elgin was Rovelstad's home town. Mrs. Rovelstad moved there at 21 to seek a job.

The couple lived in Elgin until 1958, when Rovelstad retired after working 46 years with the Elgin National Watch Co. in February of that year they moved to Novato.

"We looked for a home in the Bay Area because we wanted to watch our grandchildren grow up," Mrs. Rovelstad said. Their grandchildren are Gary, 14, and Diane Stewart, 10, of San Francisco.

Since his retirement, Rovelstad has concentrated on his lifetime avocations, reading and gardening. Sewing is Mrs. Rovelstad's hobby.

Trustees To Receive Gym's Quake Report

The San Rafael Board of Education will receive a report on the earthquake safety of the San Rafael Tigh School gymnasium and locker room at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the district office, Third and E Streets.

Harold Engle, structural engineer, previously reported that Short and Laurel Dell Primary schools do not meet the earthquake safety standards set by the Field Act of 1933.

Acting Supt. William C. Jordan said the staff will make recommendations on possible solutions to the earthquake safety problems at the schools.

The board also is scheduled to call for bids on the leasing of surplus district property at Third and E streets for parking.

The board also is scheduled to approve the appointment of Mrs. Barbara Lachelt, part-time geography and English at Davidtrict, at $1,662 a year, and Eugene Oswald, part-time economics teacher, high school district, $1,455 a year.

The resignation of Mrs. Glenn Harmon, teacher of drama, geography and 7nglish at Davidson Junior High School, effective Sept. 30, will be presented for board approval. She is moving to Carlsbad, when her husband, Howard C. Harmon, former Kentfield School District superintendent, is now superintendent.

Thieves Take $3,170 In Clothes From Shop

Men's clothing valued at $3,170 wholesale was taken in a burglary of Giovanni of Italy custom tailors at Strawberry Town and Country Village, sheriff's officers reported today.

John C. Femino, owner, told deputies the loot included 42 suits, six pairs of slacks, and eight sports coats. Officers said entry was by forcing a front door. The break-in was reported by an unidentified passerby who saw the door ajar.

A $600 color television set was taken in burglary of the home of George E. Moynihan, 371 Eden Roc Apartments, 1 Eden Roc Drive, Waldo Point.

Deputies said someone apparently jimmied the front door for entry.

Burglars also struck at Congregation Rodef Sholom, 170 North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia, the second time in four days. Officers said a petty cash box was looted of about $200. No forced entry was evident.

Andrew Herbert Herskind of 2425 Vineyard Road, Novato, reported burglars entered his home via an open back door. Loot was an electric guitar and amplifier, total valued estimated at $310.

Shirley Temple Black Gets Marin Backing Versus Film

Marin Motion Picture and Television Council is supporting Shirley Temple Black in her withdrawal from the San Francisco Film Festival board over its showing of the Swedish film, "Night Games."

Mrs. Jane Vernon, vice president for motion pictures of the council, in a letter to the former child film star declared:

"We want you to know that we are solidly behind you in your courageous stand on the Swedish film, 'Night Games.' After seeing a description of this film, it is quite evident why you labeled it pornography . . .

"It is difficult to say how much we appreciate and admire what you have done, Mrs. Black in 'depriving the festival . . . of its most glamorous name.' We think you've made sure that the real glamor of your name will remain untarnished. This is more than can be said for the San Francisco Film Festival.

"Our collective hats are off to you!"

Mrs. Vernon said the letter was approved by the membership of the council at a meeting Monday.

Bookie Trial Witness Has Little Recall

A Mill Valley witness proved little help to the federal government yesterday in its case against 11 alleged operators of an $8-million bookie ring.

Richard Andrews, 33, who admitted he had been a "phone man" for the bookies until arrested in a Daly City raid in May, 1963, answered "I don't recall" and "I don't remember" to most of the questions put by Paul Sloan, special prosecutor.

And to defense attorney James Martin MacInnis's question, "Were you afraid you would be put in jail if you did not testify for the government in this case?" Andrews replied, "Yes."

He testified that Tony Ruiz, charged with being the ring's mastermind, gave him $800 just before he went to jail on the 1963 arrest and later gave him $50 a month to pay his fine.

The 11 on trial include another Mill Valley resident, Charles M. O'Neill, 37. They are charged with failure to pay the 10 per cent federal tax on gambling receipts.

Route Hearing Draws About 100

About 100 people attended a public hearing before the San Anselmo City Council last night on proposed routes for Highway 17, and of the 15 who spoke, most favored the "ridge route."

Mayor John M. Reichmuth announced at the start of the hearing that the council had passed a resolution two months ago stating its opposition to any route through San Anselmo and the council took no further action last night.

Councilman Arthur W. Smith did not attend.

Woman Out Skunks Her Little Visitor

STAFFORD, Kan. (UPI) — Mrs. R. E. Burkhall found a skunk in her flower bed so she grabbed a hose and sprayed it before it could spray her. But then it hid inside her garage.

Mrs. Burkhall called police who told her to fight fume with fume. So she tossed a handful of mothballs into the garage. After several abortive attempts, she retreated to wait.

About dusk, the skunk took its leave, disappearing without a trace, or scent, as the case may be.

Amend, But Don't Ban All Fair Housing Laws

Proposition 14 on the 1964 ballot won the overwhelming support of California voters, under the slogan "We don't want anyone to tell us to whom we can or cannot sell or rent homes."

The argument that each of us has the right to dispose of our property as we see fit sounds reasonable enough. It appeals to the almost universal desire for freedom of action in the disposal of private homes. Thus, the majority of Californians voted for the proposition, which nullified fair housing legislation such as the Rumford Act (although the state Supreme Court has since declared Proposition 14 unconstitutional).

In the eagerness to insist on our right to dispose of property as we see fit, we tend sometimes to forget the other side of the coin—the right to buy or rent a home of our choice.

In the practical application of the doctrine that a citizen has absolute discretion in the sale of his home, the rights of other citizens who are in the market to buy are sometimes infringed upon.

An illustration of what can and does happen is the case of the Negro master sergeant who is slated to go overseas and wanted a home for his wife and children. He found a suitable one in Kentfield, advertised "children welcome."

The sergeant put down a deposit, only to be notified later that the owner doesn't want to lease to a family with children. It seemed obvious that the owner who advertised was concerned not with the sergeant's children but with the color of his skin.

But that was the owner's prerogative. The sergeant in question has little or no redress under the Rumford Act. The Act applies to publicly-assisted housing and housing with more than four units.

Thus, despite the many fair housing laws passed over the years, culminating in the Rumford Act, people like the master sergeant are still unprotected in many areas, such as in the Kentfield case.

Those who are now calling for the repeal of the Rumford Act are saying in effect that they are not satisfied with the limitations already faced by people like the sergeant; they want all housing laws eliminated to give free rein to owners of homes and apartments, whether private or publicly assisted.

Parts of the Rumford Act that may need amending should be amended. But to toss out the Rumford Act and all other fair housing laws, many of them non-controversial, would be a backward step.

We are not speaking of homeowners who want to sell their property to a neighbor or friend. We refer to homes that have been placed on the open market and publicly advertised for sale. In such sale, particularly if the property is publicly assisted, we believe every citizen has a right to bid for the home without discrimination as to color or creed.

To do otherwise would be akin to a privately owned market advertising groceries for sale, then suddenly hiking the price or refusing to sell to one customer because he happens to be black, brown, or white.

Marin's Natural Topless

Commonly called "Naked Ladies," these delicate pink blooms have considerable more class than their silicone-inflated human counterparts in San Francisco's honky-tonk nightclubs.

Actually, Naked Ladies are naked because their greenery flourished in the spring, built up a food supply in the bulb and then died down. Now, the stems and blooms come alone. A real miracle of nature.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Yes, There Is An Assembly Race; It's Bagley 2 To 1 Over Pockrus

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

THE RACE FOR state assemblyman from the 7th District (Marin and Southern Sonoma) is all but forgotten, amid all the hot contests raging from Governorship on down.

But it should be noted for the record that Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, is being opposed by James E. Pockrus, D-Rohnert Park.

It's pretty much a "local" contest, too, because Pockrus is a science teacher at Richardson Bay School, while Bagley is a San Rafael attorney seeking his fourth term in the Assembly.

PERHAPS the main reason that this race arouses so little public enthusiasm is that Assemblyman Bagley is considered a shoo-in. In 1964, Bagley swamped Pockrus by a margin of 41,000 votes. Most observers figure Bagley will repeat by a similar margin.

But you can't sell Pockrus short. In the June primary, he paid his filing fee and then didn't spend a nickel more in the campaign, yet managed to win the Democratic nomination over a hard campaigner, Bob Mertle.

If the Bagley camp is concerned at all, it would be the surprising manner in which the easy-going school teacher from Rohnert Park waltzed by the primaries by scarcely firing a shot.

IN ADDITION to candidates, the November ballot will have 17 propositions. Proposition 1-A is Constitutional revision. The rest are numbered from 1 through 16.

The League of Women Voters has published a handy four-page leaflet summarizing all the propositions, with pro and con arguments. You can get the leaflet through Mrs. Richard Ocheltree, 17 Mt. Burney Court, San Rafael, 94903.

The I-J magazine section will carry a summary of all the propositions within the next few weeks.

SEVERAL PEOPLE have complained that they don't have much choice in voting for governor. "I don't like either Governor Brown or actor Reagan. What can I do?"

There's a fellow in Hayward who aims to gather in all such stray votes. He is Bill Busick, 62, who owns a chain of nine restaurants. He's announcing himself as "a write-in candidate for governor, running as an independent Democrat."

POLLS SHOW Reagan still leading Brown in the governor's race. By Nov. 8, it ought to be a toss-up. In the final showdown, when "undecided" voters enter the voting booths and are forced to choose, we have a hunch Pat Brown will squeak through again as he's done in the past.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Reader Defends Water District

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I cannot resist a brief answer to the letter of J. F. Gustafson regarding the alleged inefficiency of the Marin Municipal Water District. Mr. Gustafson is correct — last summer water was delivered in milk cans, old mains burst from increased pressure when the hot spell ended.

The Monday morning quarterback can readily spot these deficiencies. Unfortunately, houses burn to the ground in spite of the most able of fire departments, crimes are committed despite the most efficient of police forces.

Let's take a look at the over-all performance of the local water company. Alpine Dam was enlarged around 1936, Bon Tempe Dam was built in '48 or '49. Peters Dam a few years later, then Nicasio Dam. I am not an expert, but feel we in Marin have a pretty efficient water delivery system. I haven't checked any costs but it would be interesting to compare our current water bill in relation to 1936's, taking into consideration inflation of other services and prices.

No, Mr. Gustafson, the water district is not perfect, but let's be grateful they had the foresight to build the storage areas they have.

Reader Backs Unruh's Plan

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Enclosed are two letters, one from the Committee to Reelect Governor Brown, signed by Roger Kent, state-wide chairman, and the other from the governor's office signed by Ronald Clark, cabinet secretary.

These two letters will show you along with a host of other correspondence I have had with various officials of the state the need of the office of "ombudsman" as has been proposed by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, but which apparently has been frowned upon by the state officials and Mr. Unruh's colleagues in the Senate and the Assembly.

As noted in the letter from Kent, "The tactics used against you were deplorable and fraudulent." In the letter from the governor's office they state that the entrapment methods used by the State Compensation Insurance Fund would be turned over to the chief counsel for the fund to investigate. Are they naive enough to think I would believe that the chief counsel would do anything that is detrimental to his own department and also a reflection on himself and the attorney that used these methods. This Office of Ombudsman would provide a bridge between the citizen and the government and should be made to apply not only to the state but to cities and counties.

Outside of one's local newspapers, as in your column "What Our Readers Say," (where) can a citizen voice his complaints against government? If you go to your representatives in either state or county, you are given the old brush-off, "Thanks for bringing it to my attention, I will give it my personal attention and see that something is done about it."

What happens? Several letters are written back and forth and then they hope that you will drop the whole matter. This has happened from letters to Senator McCarthy and Assemblyman Bagley. McCarthy at least wrote a few letters back and forth and Bagley did not even answer his. The manager of the State Compensation Insurance Fund admits the uses of these films as used in the hearing in question but he states, quote, "Only a little was used." As the old saying goes, "You can't be just a little bit pregnant."

You, Mr. Editor, published a letter from me sometime back regarding the "Ambulance Chasing" techniques by the insurance fund. I wrote you two other letters as developments in the case proceeded on, which you did not publish. I realize these were partly repetitious but did bring out additional facts, but where in the world can a citizen go to except his local paper? Not only to bring out illegal operations of the state agencies, but these operations need constant viewing in order to get any results and action from the government, otherwise they are filed in the wastepaper basket after public indignation has been mollified by statements such as "it will be looked into."

Your California Newspaper Publishers Assn. condemns the fact that the state wants to withhold evidence regarding certain cases as being injurious to their future trials. This is wrong, as all the facts in a case should be heard and is of most importance that the public should know what is going on. I believe that the newspaper should print all, not just what the officials want to present to them, otherwise we have a police state.

Mr. Editor, this office of "Ombudsman" is the greatest thing that could happen to and for the citizens of our state. Remember, sir, where there is smoke there is fire and as long as citizens sit back and accept what is dished out to them and exclaim "What's the use? They will do as they please anyway," then we will continue to have a police state and the heads of government and state agencies are the judge and jury.

Your column is a most needed one as it acts as a sounding board to present issues to the state and government that would otherwise be quieted down. You are read by thousands of subscribers and only in unity is there any strength. Please print this letter so that action can be taken, and we, the public, be given an office where we can voice our complaints as offered by Assemblyman Jesse Unruh.

A MERCHANT brought his son for the first time to the garment center to buy a fall line of dresses, and haggled over the price of each item for a full ten minutes. On the way home the knowing lad inquired, "Why did you work so hard to beat him down, Papa? You know as well as I do that you'll probably be unable to pay the bill."

"My boy," the father assured him, "that man is not only the salt of the earth but one of my dearest friends, and I was determined that he should get stuck for just as little as possible!"

WHEN POSTMASTER General Larry O'Brien celebrated his birthday, the congratulatory messages included this telegram from Senator Ed Kennedy: "I mailed you a birthday card three weeks ago, but I was afraid it wouldn't be delivered in time—hence this wire. Happy birthday."

THE FOREFATHERS who named our towns and villages were not too imaginative. The U.S.A. today boasts 21 Milfords and Oxfords. There are 17 Buffalos and 16 Warrens, 13 Parises, 12 Berlins, 11 Moscows, 9 Dublins, and 6 Londons. There also are 2 Budas but no Pests.

Dreamers and lovers of the classics will be pleased to note that we have 15 towns named Athens, 16 Arcadias, and 8 Paradises. Only one Utopia turns up, unfortunately — and that's in Texas.

New Movement To Get Viet Peace Under Way Best Yet

WASHINGTON — There is a new and significant movement to get Viet Nam peace talks underway.

The movement is more meaningful that anything we have yet seen.

Obviously, it can have no solid beginning until Hanoi realizes that the U.S. elections are not going to swerve the government from staying the course. And quick results cannot be expected.

But there are new forces behind getting talks started or at least preparing more definitely for getting things started.

A PATTERN is coming into view — however unplanned. It stems from a whole series of events during the past few days and which, when put together, show that enough is happening so that Hanoi may be less disposed to keep saying no, no, to every overture.

No single one of these developments proves much by itself, but the sum total is impressive:

South Viet Nam's Premier Ky has informed the UN that he would welcome "any initiative for peace" and that his forces have no intention of invading North Viet Nam.

French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville, fresh from Hanoi, has told President Johnson that North Viet Nam sees no chance of winning the war the way things are going now.

HANOI HAS shaved its conditions for entering peace talks. It used to say it would never enter negotiations until U.S. forces were withdrawn. It now says, according to UN sources, that the U.S. must cease bombing the North before it will negotiate.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant is encouraged enough to resume his behind-the-scenes approaches and he is being supported by Pope Paul VI, several African and Asian statesmen, and President Johnson.

While deep differences remain over Viet Nam and NATO, French-U.S. diplomatic relations are improving and a de Gaulle-Johnson meeting is being sympathetically discussed. In the end de Gaulle may well play a needed role in bringing both sides to the conference.

Better Soviet-U.S. relations, which are improving despite Viet Nam.

A Moscow-New York commercial airline agreement is at hand and headway is being made toward a space treaty. Better Soviet-U.S. relations mean a better prospect that Russia will play its role in promoting Viet Nam peace talks.

None of these events nor the sum of them can be expected to yield fruitage quickly.

The main deterrent remains. Though reportedly convinced that it cannot win the war, Hanoi is not convinced that the time has come to make peace. President de Gaulle is not yet helping. He still proposes only a one-sided basis to end the war: namely, that the U.S. stop defending South Viet Nam without North Viet Nam agreeing to stop attacking South Viet Nam.

BUT THE TIME is getting nearer, I think, when we need to find the proper yardstick with which to test the validity of a peace settlement. When the Communists get ready to talk, the air will be thick with proposals which will have the substance of a false and deceptive peace.

That is standard Communist negotiating practice as illustrated during the Korean truce talks. They'll demand truce without measures to secure it. They'll offer agreements without any method of inspecting their fulfillment. They'll accept any kind of inspection if they can veto the decisions of the inspection team.

Every peace proposal can be judged by one test: does it help preserve the independence of South Viet Nam?

U.S. Signs Accord For Thailand Base

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — U.S. contingency plans call for the use of the giant new air base at Sattship, Thailand, if Red China intervenes in the Viet Nam conflict.

Under an agreement with Thailand, B-52 strategic bombers will be allowed to operate from the Sattship base to attack targets in China.

That's the information Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson, former undersecretary of state, gave the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Questioned about the base, Johnson replied:

"The Sattship base was prepared for contingencies that we hope will never arise. These plans involve Communist China's possible entry into the Viet Nam fighting. Should that occur, the base would be available for use by B-52 bombers."

Johnson, who served as ambassador to Thailand for three years, lauded the government of Prime Minister Thanon Kittikachorn as "one of the most progressive in the Far East."

THE PRESENCE of several Secret Service agents in Saigon has touched off much conjecture about their reason for being there. In his private talks with U.S. officials President Ferdinand Marcos warned of the need to be on guard against possible sneak air attacks by the North Viet Nam against U.S. troop concentrations in South Viet Nam. Marcos said Philippine businessmen picked up the report from Hong Kong bankers.

U.S. TROOP strength in Thailand has nearly tripled in the past year. There are now 34,000 there.

The 1964 presidential campaign debt of the Democratic National Committee has been reduced to $700,000, according to a report submitted to the clerk of the House. The debt is down from $3 million at the end of the campaign.

PRESIDENT Johnson is considering broadening his concept of consensus politics. In other words, he is planning to help out a few Republican members of Congress and governors who support his Viet Nam policies.

The strategy calls for the President to laud a favored Republican for his support in a non-partisan speech or have his picture taken with the candidate at the White House.

The President also will help these Republicans by withholding endorsements from their Democratic opponents.

THE SENATE Ethics Committee investigating Sen. Thomas Dodd, D-Conn., has postponed further hearings until next January. Sen. John Stennis, D-Mass., chairman, is also saying that the committee may not write a report or issue any findings.

Meanwhile, Senator Dodd is seriously considering making a Senate floor speech blasting the Justice Department for failing to act against persons involved in stealing hundreds of documents and letters from his files.

Before going to the State Department, former Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach ruled against any prosecution while the Senate committee was making its investigation.

FBI DIRECTOR J. Edgar Hoover is convinced that "Che" Guevara, mysteriously missing for months, is still very much alive.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

Meanest Women Around Search Goodwill, Salvation Army Boxes

Two of the meanest women around must be the pair seen regularly grubbing through the Goodwill and Salvation Army donation boxes at a supermarket parking lot in Mill Valley.

Employees of a service station across the street from the lot report that the women drive up to the boxes almost every Monday at about 7:30 a.m. and pick through the clothing in the boxes—taking only the best, of course. They manage to fill at least one shopping bag each trip, the men noted.

"THEY OBVIOUSLY make their rounds elsewhere, too," said one, "since their car is already pretty well loaded with clothing by the time they get here." The two women, he said, drive a green Falcon station wagon, about six years old.

Their visits last only a few minutes, he said. "They're really efficient." And they rarely take appliances, preferring clothing.

They haven't been around for a few weeks, he said, but police have been notified to watch for them.

A Goodwill spokesman estimated 50 of his organization's 300 boxes in the Bay Area are raided each week. Raids vary from light pilferage by persons who bring donations to the boxes but take something else home that catches their fancy, to vandalism. A problem, he said, is use of the boxes as dumps — more convenient and cheaper than commercial dumps.

THE BOXES ARE emptied daily, he said, except Sunday, which explains the two ladies' preference for Monday as a shopping day — before the boxes are emptied. Also, most donations are made during the week end.

Both Goodwill and Salvation Army spokesmen said wholesale thievery as seen at the Mill Valley boxes is rare. Both urged donors to call them for pick-up service on large items which are easy prey to vandals and thieves when left outside the boxes.

The Salvation Army spokesman said its principal problem was with children small enough to get into the box, pass goodies out to an accomplice, and get out again. The only recent rash of thievery by adults, he said, was in Fairfax.

Of 128 boxes in the west bay, about half are tapped regularly by teen-agers and children, he estimated.

If you see someone going through a donation box, call the police. Thievery of the boxes is not innocent sport.

HAROLD W. HENDERSON, faithful weather reporter in Sausalito, reported last week that the bird population of his city has fallen off sharply in recent months.

The plague, or whatever it is, appears to have struck all types of birds, but particularly the sparrows, he said. "You rarely hear a bird singing here now," he said.

"We had a lot of crows for a while, but now they, too, seem to have gone." He hastened to add that he is "not a bird watcher, by any means."

Where have they gone? Has the weekend traffic driven them away?

MANNY CHANDLER, program director at the Boys Club of Southern Marin, needs generous donations of scrap wood suitable for the boys in the woodworking shop. Scrap plastics for the ceramic workshop also is needed, he said.

Chandler said the workshops should open by the end of this week. The game room of the club house opened last week for informal use. Shop equipment still is being installed, he noted.

Persons with wood and plastic to donate may contact Chandler at the club, 640 Drake Avenue, Marin City.

JIM WILKIE blew through Mill Valley last week after a summer of shoeing strings of pack horses in the Sierra.

The only horse shoer in Southern Marin, by his own guess, Jim said shoeing is "dirty hard work, but if I go to work, I might as well work for myself; I finally found something I like to do."

Jim has a truck and his two hands, and that's enough, he declared.

Shoeing for about a year, he roamed the mountains between jobs this summer. A free man.

Not bad for a boy who graduated from Tamalpais High School last June.

The draft board, of course, may change all that. So much for the rugged individual today.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

High Powered Sleuthing Going On At Marin's Civic Center?

Fusselman

Careful, folks. Little Brother is watching you. He has his eye on you and on your waste basket, too. I sure hope you read the "Reporter's Notebook" on Monday. You see, the waste basket in the press room at the Civic Center had been raided and property of the I-J (copy of a teletype transmission to the newsroom downtown) had been filched by the county personnel man — one of the administrator's operatives. To accomplish this caper, the administrator's assistant (his intelligence department, you know—regular cloak and dagger stuff) had to first make sure that I-J reporter Rick Lyttle (not Little Brother; the spelling is different) was away from the press room on the third floor of the Civic Center.

He then cautiously stole forth from his own office on the same floor, but across the airwell—passed by the clerk's office, then the supervisors' offices—around the bend and past the board's hearing room and the length of the arcade to where the teletype is located —searched the waste basket (separating the apple cores from the papers) until he found the copy he was looking for. All this while he would be fearfully watching over his shoulder for Rick's possible return. Then he, oh so casually, must get the heck out of there and back to his own office, where he made facsimile copies for limited certified distribution. Was he ever glad when that was over and he could get a coffee break.

NOW, HOW DO YOU like this high-priced manpower and expensive copying machine being used in this fashion? Not so good, is it?

Incidentally, in spite of the administrator's claim that personnel was a separate department and should not be charged to him, he apologized to the board and to the I-J on Tuesday. Some really sticky flypaper he worked himself into, I would say.

This is one of the answers to his plaintive cry at budget time that "Something (was) Wrong Somewhere." Yup, there is—to the tune of $217,436 this year; up $169,272 from $48,164 ten years ago. No wonder the Ross Valley supervisor said, "I think it should just be dropped."

There's a prevailing theory that taxpaying voters never remember things such as this if they are not stirred up too much.

ONE CAN DETECT a slight slowing up of referring everything to the administrator. For example, on Tuesday the chairman was instructed to write an answering letter to ABAG and to make an appearance at the next meeting of the group. Normally, these two things would be assigned to the one-man power structure.

Let's hope this is a crack in the shell of this expensive setup. There was another faint gleam of hope shown at the meeting of the County Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFC), when the new planning director requested that a study of governmental structure be done by expert consultants being employed.

"Kettenhofen disagreed. He said some outsider would not be aware of the pressures that have been around so long and would come up with some ideal concept," it was reported. The Ross Valley supervisor talked at some length on the "art of the possible." Supervisor Leydecker agreed that there is a practical framework that can not be ignored. You see, it appears that they are beginning to realize that the new planning director is, himself, an outsider and hasn't been here long enough to be competent to claim he knows "what Marin residents (really) want."

He was presenting a plan to have five cities instead of the present ones — another with three and still another with 48 boroughs. This latter colored by his East Coast experience. He apparently is enamored with the borough system of New York City. Oh Boy!

UNDER THE caption, "Good Egg of the Week," a county weekly gave high and well deserved praise to Donald R. Frost for the "best try of the month for cutting county spending." There was one slight error in the story. They repeatedly called him "Administrator." He is the director of public works. Not an administrator. I am sure, though, they meant no offense.

Youths Guilty In Burglary

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court yesterday found Raymond Rudolph Beauchamp and Isaiah Howard Wallace guilty of an April 14 burglary of Brown's Home Furnishers in Mill Valley.

He will pronounce sentence at 4 p.m. Nov. 3.

The court trial of Wallace, of 207 Drake Avenue, and Beauchamp, 261 Drake Avenue, both 24 and of Marin City, started Monday. They were found in the store at 38 Miller Avenue by Mill Valley police.

America Teaches DeGaulle Not To Fool Around—Cancels Wine

WASHINGTON — Rep. Samuel Stratton, Democrat of upstate New York, charged that President De Gaulle was trying to undermine the United States economy, and he urged Americans to stop buying French wine.

"If we stopped buying French wines and bought New York State wines, De Gaulle would be on his knees in a short time."

If what Congressman Stratton says is true, I wouldn't like to be in the French president's shoes.

SUPPOSE President De Gaulle is working at the Elysee Palace and an aide barges in.

"Monsieur le President, it has just come over the radio that the American people have stopped buying French wines and are going to drink New York wine instead."

"Zut alors. There go my plans for an independent France."

"The Bordeaux people are in the outer office, and they wish to speak with you."

"Send them in."

"MONSIEUR le President, as members of the Bordeaux Wine Assn., we have come to ask you to do something about the crisis."

"Monsieurs, I did not dream when I asked the American troops to leave France that they would stop drinking our wine."

"Monsieur le President, we winegrowers feel you have gone too far. It is one thing to bring grandeur and glory to France, but at what a price! We feel you must ask the Americans to forgive you for everything you've done."

"There must be some other way," De Gaulle says. "Perhaps we could offer to sell back all the gold we bought from them."

"I DON'T BELIEVE it would satisfy them. A people who are willing to drink nothing but New York wine for the rest of their lives are a tough people to deal with."

"That might be helpful. At least it's worth a try."

De Gaulle calls the American ambassador and speaks to him. He then hangs up. "The ambassador says he'll pass on my thoughts, but it may be too late. They started shipping out the New York State wines to the supermarkets last week."

A WINEGROWER says, "And to think we thought the American people were paper tigers."

Another winegrowers says, "We must make more of a gesture. Couldn't we agree to pay the United Nations the money we owe them?"

"That might cost us more than what our French wine brings in," De Gaulle says. "Perhaps we could switch our policy on the Viet Nam war?"

"It's worth a try. At least it won't cost us anything," De Gaulle says.

The phone rings and De Gaulle speaks. "Yes, sir. I'm sorry, sir. Yes, sir, I'll do my best." He hangs up. "That was the president of the Burgundy Wine Tasters Assn. He's hopping mad."

"What opera is that from?" De Gaulle asks.

"Enough of this nonsense, Monsieur le President. We want to know what you're going to do."

"I have no choice. I must get down on my knees. Send in the photographers."

Tiburon Club Sets Show Of Orchids

The Shark Lions Club of Belvedere - Tiburon will sponsor "Orchids, World of Elegance," at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon Oct. 21, 22 and 23.

Proceeds will be used by the club for its charitable work in Marin County. Orchid societies in Marin, Napa and Santa Rosa will host the show, held in memory of Melvin H. Dittmer of Napa, who was instrumental in the formation of the orchid societies.

A champagne preview on Oct. 21 at 8 p.m. will precede the show.

Seabees To Work At Scouts' Camp

The Seabees will demolish a condemned log building, built in the 1830s, to make a parking lot, remove tree stumps and build a secondary emergency access road.

The camp is owned by San Francisco Council of the Boy Scouts.

NOTICE OF SALE OF PROPERTY DELINQUENT FOR NON-PAYMENT OF ASSESSMENT BOND NO. 1R RESUBDIVISION MARIN BAY IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT NO. 2 SERIES 1962-2R ISSUED FOR IMPROVEMENTS IN MARIN COUNTY

State of California, default having been made in the payment of the following named coupons, 1/2/66, Pr. $509.60; 7/2/65, Int. $214.03; 1/2/66, Int. $214.03; 7/2/66, Int. $198.74; and the holder of said bond having demanded in writing that the County Treasurer of the County of Marin, State of California, proceed to advertise and sell the lot or parcel of land mentioned in said bond. Now, therefore, I give notice that I will on the 28th day of October, 1966, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. of said day, sell at public auction, the lot or parcel of land mentioned in said bond, or so much thereof as may be necessary, at my office in the Marin County Civic Center at San Rafael, California, unless the amount due on said bond and the accrued interest thereon together with the cost of publication of this notice, are paid, and that I will so sell the same to the person who will take the least amount of said lot or parcel of land and pay the full amount of unpaid principal and interest on said bond together with the cost of publication. The lot or parcel of land mentioned in said bond and to be sold, is more particularly described, to-wit:

Lot No. 103, as shown on that certain map entitled "Map of a Resubdivision of Lots 20 through 55 and Lots 64 through 76, as shown on Map of Marin Bay Unit 2-A, San Rafael, California," recorded in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Marin, California, on June 5, 1964, in Volume 12 of Maps at Page 73. The amount due on said bond up to the date of this notice is as follows: Due on the principal thereof $509.60; due on account of interest $756.60; due on account of penalties $125.90; Total amount due on said bond $8016.90.

In order to avoid this sale, payment of the total amount above named will be required, together with the cost of publication made before such payment and the additional interest accruing up to the date of payment. Bond may be reinstated upon payment of amounts due, principal, interest, penalties, and fees, in the manner provided by law.

In the event of sale, such sale will include interest in addition to the above total amount due, accruing up to the date of sale, the cost of publication of notice of sale, and $1.00 for the issuance of certificate of sale.

The Independent-Journal is designated as the newspaper in which this notice shall be published.

Dated: September 30, 1966.

Armed Officers Arrest Three On Bogus Money

TAFT (UPI) —Shotgun-armed law enforcement officers arrested three men here and recovered more than $100,000 in bogus $20 bills yesterday in what they described as the breakup of a counterfeiting ring.

At least eight officers stopped the men in their car in a downtown alley. The suspects were with possession of counterfeit money and were to be arraigned today before the U. S. commissioner in Bakersfield. They were identified as Jerry Allen Fields, 30, a printing press operator from Las Vegas, Nev., and Robert Brown Rothey, 46, a civil engineer also from Las Vegas, and Henry LeRoy Houts, 41, Taft.

U. S. Secret Service agent in charge Stephen A. Byrne said at his Sacramento office the bills were "fair counterfeits." He said it was not known where the bogus money was printed.

$100,000 More Building Slated At Ross Hospital

An immediate start of three new building projects at Ross General Hospital, to cost a total of $100,000, was voted by the board of directors at the annual shareholder's meeting.

Administrator John C. Siemens said the board approved a new maintenance shop, gift shop and intensive care unit, expected to accommodate seven patients.

The architect will be Jack Hermann of Kentfield and the contractors Herrero Brothers of San Francisco.

The board also elected a new member, Dr. Harry N. Hensler, to replace Dr. Ch

Whether There Are Growing Pains Remains Question With Experts

VAN DELLEN

Do growing pains really exist? A reader has a 10-year-old son who awakens several times a week complaining of pain in the knees and thighs. The boy is comfortable during the day. A neighbor added to her concern by telling her that the child probably has rheumatic fever.

Perhaps we can solve this old question once and for all. Noctural pains and aches in the legs often appear during the growth period, but whether they stem from growth is a moot question. Most of the victims are between 8 and 12 years of age, a period of relatively slow growth. They also are more common in the thin, wiry child who is inclined to be very active.

THIS ALSO is the time when the tendons and ligaments are extremely elastic and the joints are easily twisted or strained during play. If adults ran, jumped, and fell one-tenth as often as children, they would be as stiff as a board. In addition, youngsters of this age sleep in unusual positions which add to the stress upon the legs.

The pain usually awakens the child once or twice a night. The distress may be mild or so severe that he screams or cries. The pain is described as deep, often in the thigh, behind the knee, upper calf, or muscles along the front of the legs. The site may vary from one attack to another. There is no swelling, redness, tenderness, spasms or stiffness of the joints.

GROWING PAINS rarely occur during the day and when present suggest a psychological cause. A more serious origin is suspected when there is swelling, redness, and tenderness, and the child's activity is restricted. Possibilities include rheumatic fever, rheumatoid arthritis, and a number of disorders involving the hip and knee. Other causes may be bone tumors and secondary strain due to flat feet or curvature of the spine.

Why does rheumatic fever enter the picture so often? Back in 1889 an influential pediatrician, Dr. A. Jacobi claimed that the majority of children with growing pains had rheumatism. And so it has been since then.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

REARRANGED

M. D. writes: I look as if I had lost 20 pounds and I have to wear a smaller size in clothes but the scales still say 135, which is my normal weight. Have you any explanation?

REPLY

With growth or maturity, there may be redistribution of fat without actual gain or loss in weight.

HOLDING BACK

B. C. writes: My wife is being treated for high blood pressure. She drinks and smokes but does not tell the doctor and he does not ask. What is your opinion?

REPL Y

Stop feuding. If she prefers to withhold information from her physician, who will be the loser?

ICE CREAM CRAMPS

Mrs. M. writes: My 8-year-old daughter loves ice cream but always develops abdominal cramps when she eats it.

REPLY

If eating smaller servings slowly does not help, little can be done because the lining of her stomach must be extremely sensitive to cold or she is allergic to one of the ingredients.

OPERATION REPAIR

E. J. writes: Is it better for a man with a double hernia to wear a truss or have one or both ruptures operated on?

REPLY

Controversial Assessor Blasts Proposition 3

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sacramento County's woman assessor, who caused a furor with a plan to quadruple property tax assessments, added today she opposes Prop. 3, the "clear space conservation" amendment.

Dr. Irene Hickman said the proposal would take "the assessing job away from the assessors where it traditionally belongs and give the legislature the right to say what is the higheast and best use of the land."

Assessor since Sept. 1, Mrs. Hickman insists the State Constitution requires that all property be assessed at full cash value instead of the usual 20-25 per cent "and I have to obey the law."

"We have had our heads in the sand for years pretending that we are obeying the law," she said.

She referred to Prop. 3 as "truly a speculator's bill.

"I think it's a blank check for the speculators," she said in an interview.

The proposition would permit the legislature to allow certain undeveloped lands to be assessed at a rate that would encourage their conservation.

Klan Leader Gets Prison, $1,000 Fine

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert M. Shelton, imperial wizard of the United Klans of America Inc., was given the maximum sentence—one year in prison and a $1,000 fine — today on conviction of contempt of Congress.

Shelton, 36, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was convicted by a U.S. District Court jury Sept. 14 on a charge of refusing to produce books and records of the Ku Klux Klan at a hearing last October before a subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

After Judge John J. Sirica pronounced the sentence, Shelton was permitted to remain free on bond pending his planned appeal.

Six other klansmen were indicted along with Selton. It is likely their trials will be delayed until Shelton's case has been decided on appeal.

Teen-Ager Booked On Theft Charges

Steven Maras, 18, of San Francisco was booked in Marin County Jail yesterday for petty theft after he reportedly was caught carrying two pairs of slacks from the Emporium at Northgate Shopping Center.

A 17-year-old accomplice was later found in front of the store with a shopping bag filled with clothes and a book from the store. He was taken to juvenile hall by San Rafael police on a charge of petty theft.

Thieves Take Gear For Horse

Attorney Recovering From Kidney Ailment

Wallace S. Myers, Fairfax city attorney, is recovering in St. Francis Hospital, San Francisco, after undergoing treatment for a kidney infection.

"It's only a temporary thing and I expect to be out of the hospital tomorrow," he said from his hospital bed today. A former resident of San Anselmo, Myers lives in San Francisco.

For Marin, the world's fastest reporting

We tied up the globe in the I-J's new electronic tape to show there's something new in the world of news reporting in your daily I-J.

For that tape "speaks" a new electronic language which we take directly from the Associated Press sports wire, rather than news in the form of teletyped copy.

We feed this tape into a battery of new Elektron linotypes which "read" the little perforations and change impulses into words, set in metal. All at speeds Buck Rogers never dreamed of.

Result: MORE NEWS in less time and LATER NEWS . . . giving you a sports section with more depth and complete world coverage.

These electronic speed demons also enable us to bring you the closing prices of our New York Stock List TODAY, instead of tomorrow. And to print the entire weekly range of ALL New York stocks in our Saturday edition.

Just another way of advancing the I-J to further your reading enjoyment.

Knights Of Columbus Get 25-Year Awards

'Mum Hobbyists Due On Television Show

Two members of the Chrysanthemum Society of Marin will appear on Norvill Gilespie's "Green Thumb" television program on KRON (Channel 4) tomorrow at 3 p.m.

Col. J. Paul Sibbitt of Novato, president of the Marin society, will discuss the 17th annual "Jewels of Autumn" show to be given in Crocker-Citizens National Bank in San Rafael Oct. 22 and 23. Mrs. Bernard H. Keener of Sleepy Hollow will display bonsai chrysanthemums and explain their culture.

The building of the original Erie Canal in the early 19th century from north of Albany westward to Buffalo was the biggest construction project ever undertaken in the young United States.

Russia May Be Readying Probe

MOSCOW (AP)—Unconfirmed reports are circulating in Moscow that the Soviet Union will try soon to put several men in space in the largest manned satellite ever launched.

Some versions of the reports say the launching might come next week. Other versions say by the end of this year. There was no official information available.

In the last 15 months the Soviet Union has launched three unmanned Proton satellites each weighing about 13 tons.

Objects of this size could be used to sustain several men in space for a number of days, providing the kind of "manned orbital laboratory" which the United States has talked about launching.

Rights Group Adopts Clause

Marin County Human Rights Commission last night adopted revised wording for the fair employment clause in the contract for the community mental health center.

The clause, to be considered by supervisors Tuesday, differs from an earlier clause only in excluding the need for agreement by labor unions.

The original clause was blamed in part for the lack of interest in the community mental health center job. Only one bid was submitted on the first call. It was rejected and no new bid date has yet been set.

More Visitors To Tam Than At San Simeon

Mount Tamalpais State Park was a bigger draw than state historical monuments at San Simeon and Sutter's Fort and many state beaches and parks during the 1964-65 fiscal year, according to the State Division of Beaches and Parks.

Attendance at Mount Tamalpais for the period was 492,352, highest of the division's six installations in Marin, the division disclosed in a report just published. In comparison Sutter's Fort had 477,041 and San Simeon 414,363.

Stinson Beach State Park drew 431,183 persons, Samuel P. Taylor Park, 181,408, Tomales Bay, 114,203, Angel Island, 41,307, and Marin Headlands, 1,165.

According to the division's statistics, the biggest draw was the Folsom State Recreation Area, which had an attendance of 3,794,910.

A random check showed that the Jack London State Historical Park, Sonoma County, drew 129,179; Pfeiffer Big Sur State Park in Monterey County, 492,716; Petaluma Adobe State Historical Monument, 27,417; San Mateo Coast State Beach, 1,861,399; Richardson Grove State Park in Humboldt County, 481,530, and Big Basin Redwoods State Park, Santa Cruz County, 662,664.

Pike Places Bircher Tag On Accuser

YPSILANTI, Mich. (UPI)—Episcopal Bishop James Pike, former bishop of California, said yesterday one priest who accused him of heresy is a member of the John Birch Society.

He identified the man as the Rev. Frank Brunton of the Diocese of South Florida who has retired in Arizona. He said the priest was responsible for the "doggerel, libel and slander" which has followed him.

The heresy charges against Bishop Pike are being spearheaded by Bishop Henry Louttit of South Florida.

Bishop Pike, in an appearance at Eastern Michigan University, said he doubted the move to convict him on the charges would succeed.

"I am confident in the roominess of the Angelican tradition to allow for truth and relevancy," he said.

Nixon Pays JFK Glowing Tribute

NEW YORK (AP) — President John F. Kennedy "would have welcomed the problems that face the world today" as "a happy warrior," says former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Speaking last night at the 22nd annual dinner of the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Fund, Nixon said of the man who defeated him for the presidency:

"John F. Kennedy would have told us don't be smug, don't stand on the sidelines, get in the arena and see that America in the last third of this century produces a quality of leadership that is second place to no one."

The $100-a-plate charity dinner honors the memory of Smith, a New York Democratic governor defeated by Herbert Hoover in the 1928 presidential election.

TELEVISION REVIEW

ABC Mishandling Its 'Stage 67'

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —Considering how much time, effort and legitimate concern ABC-TV has put into its honorable new experimental series, "Stage 67," it is disconcerting to note how often the network has mishandled it publicly.

The first and major mistake was the righteous, pretentious and "cultural" approach of the early publicity and speeches, which rubbed many persons wrong within the trade—and even within ABC-TV — and failed to serve the ultimate purpose: Drawing an audience, or at least trying to in a sensible way.

ience, or at least trying to in a sensible way.

WRONG APPROACH

But even aside from this, there are little details here and there which add to the indication that the network people in charge are failing at the basic job of protecting this important series as much as possible on every flank.

For example, some days before "Stage 67" presented this past Wednesday's original musical comedy, "Olympus 7-0000," an album of the original cast recording was received by this reviewer, which of course means other copies were sent to persons in similar or allied fields.

Now, "Olympus 7-0000" was clearly far from an exceptional show, and the musical numbers were generally very forgettable. People I have spoken to at ABC-TV even admitted this openly, which means that surely those in charge of promoting and protecting the series and its individual programs knew this in advance if they had any taste.

PRESTIGE PROJECT

Therefore, the only result of listening to such an album in advance of a show is to help condition one's mind against it, and since critical notices are important to "Stage 67" because it is chiefly a prestige project, this early dispatching of the records was a blunder, even if they failed to affect one review.

There is yet another point in connection with the sending of these records. Even if the musical numbers were good or excellent, an advance listening to them only serves to diminish the excitement of hearing and watching them on the air for the first time, in context.

As it happens, I didn't listen to the album in advance because I didn't want to precondition my attitude toward the show, and also because I didn't want to have the possible pleasure of the original production diminished. But that is not the point. The proper thing would have been to send out the albums—if that was necessary at all—after the show.

WRONG TIMING

Another case of an exposed flank arose when "Olympus 7-0000" was shown on the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. before being seen in this country and got a critical rapping in the trade press, which was read widely—before the American air date—by those involved with video.

An ABC-TV spokesman tells me this airing in Canada—which resulted in a proper knocking down of the show in advance of the U.S. broadcast—was just one of those situations that couldn't be helped, and gave out all sorts of complicated, logical-sounding technical reasons.

But when one considers that network television is the business of some of the toughest, shrewdest hucksters in the world—probably the toughest and shrewdest, in fact—then no reasons sound logical enough. If you are a big, important corporation, and you have a major project that is essential to your reputation, then you don't quibble about the niceties of business when you protect it. From this viewpoint, "Olympus 7-0000" should not have been allowed to be shown first in Canada.

1. LIQUID SUSPENSION — Revolutionary system provides superior handling (proved at "Indy"). No pitch or roll (no service required).
2. FRONT WHEEL DRIVE — Proper use of power makes it practically impossible to skid on slippery surfaces.
4. STEERING WHEEL — Will collapse forward and upward on impact.
5. RACK and PINION — Steering—light—precise—quick.
6. DISC BRAKES — No locking to cause skids—no fade, no failing.
8. HEAVY CAR — Probably heaviest car on the road for its size. Only 12 feet long and weighs close to a ton.
10. CHILD PROOF DOOR SAFETY LOCKS — Little fingers can't reach them.
11. CURVED WINDSHIELD — Absolutely distortion free.
12. SOFT VISORS
13. PADDED DASH
14. EASY REACH CONTROLS
15. SAFETY-FAST

For more than 30 years the initials M.G. have been associated with cars of performance and character; cars which have earned the reputation for "SAFETY FAST" and for advanced design.

It is nice to be protected in an accident, but it is even better to avoid the accident! All M.G. cars are designed to give the driver the best possible chance of doing so!!

Novato Coed Will Attend Sea College

Donna Hamilton, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Leo W. Hamilton of 1408 Hill Street, Novato, has withdrawn from College of Marin and will spend the fall semester aboard the SS Ryndam with the Seven Seas division of Chapman College.

Miss Hamilton, whose father is pastor of Novato Community Methodist Church, was accepted to the floating college with entrance honors and was awarded a scholarship on Sunday.

The tour will leave Sunday from New York. Forty-eight days of the semester will be spent in such ports as Lisbon, Barcelona, Rome, Athens, Istanbul, Cairo, Bombay, Bangkok, Hong Kong, Tokyo, and Honolulu. The ship will return to Los Angeles Feb. 4.

Synanon Seeks Expansion For Marshall Site

Expansion of Synanon's use permit to cover the entire 62-acre site at Marshall will be considered by Marin County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill Monday.

The zoning administrator's hearings will begin at 10 a.m. at the Civic Center. The Synanon use permit is scheduled for hearing at 2:30 p.m.

Synanon, a non-profit endeavor for the treatment of drug addicts, has asked with the expansion, permission to add another building on the property, formerly the Marconi radio station.

At 2 p.m. Cordill will consider the application of Johnnie E. Bunch for permission to operate a day nursery for 45 children at 231 Point San Pedro Road, just outside San Rafael city limits.

Recreation Volleyball At College Of Marin

A recreation volleyball league will begin play at College of Marin gymnasium next Wednesday night, and will play every week on Wednesday.

Any team, men or women's, interested in joining the league may sign up Wednesday at 7 p.m. Advance reservations can be made with Harry Pieper, the college athletic director.

DEAR SPORTS WRITERS: PLEASE DON'T PICK US

A petition bearing 105 signatures of Redwood High School students today implored the Independent-Journal sports writers to refrain from picking Redwood's varsity fooball team to wins its games. Redwood had been favored to win its first four games and lost all four.

The petition said, "The hex you have cast on our team is more than the players can cope with."

The petition failed to dissuade the I-J's panel of fearless, peerless pigskin prognosticators from unanimously favoring Redwood over Marin Catholic this weekend, as you will see by turning to page 38.

Sorry about that, kids.

World's Top Drivers In Grand Prix At Monterey

MONTEREY (AP)—Fifty-six of the world's ranking sports car racers were slated to open competition today in the seventh annual Monterey Grand Prix, the fourth step in the Canadian-American Challenge Cup series.

Although the cars boast potential speeds in the 200-mile-per-hour neighborhood, the curves on the 1.9 - mile Laguna Seca layout will keep them far below this.

New Jersey's Mark Donohue, currently heads the challenge cup list with 11 points after winning at Bowmanville, Ontario, Sept. 24. England's Chris Amon and Bruce McLaren of New Zealand each have 10 with John Surtees of England and Dan Gurney and Phil Hill of the United States deadlocked with nine each.

Qualifying runs were on the schedule today with amateur races tomorrow and the two 100-mile heats of the Grand Prix on Sunday.

A $30,000 purse is guaranteed and sponsors' awards will boost it in the neighborhood of $53,000.

Texas Jim Hall will drive one of his new Chevy-Chaparral cars with Hill handling the other. Mecom Racing of Houston has entered two Lola T-70s with 1963 Indianapolis winner Parnelli Jones in one and Jackie Stewart of Scotland in the other.

Surtees drives a Lola T - 70 powered by Chevrolet while Gurney pilots a Lola-Ford.Mexico's Pedro Rodrigues goes in a Dino Ferrari.

Laguna Seca's road is from 30 to 40 feet in width with an elevation difference of 175 feet.

Of the top finishing six cars in the three previous races in the Canadian - American series, nine were McLarens, six were Lolas, two were Chaparrals and one was a Ford GT-40.

After Laguna Seca, the final two races in the series will be at Riverside on Oct. 30 and Las Vegas, Nev., Nov. 13.

BRODIE GETS THE NOD AND MIRA IS UNHAPPY

John Brodie will open at quarterback for the San Francisco 49ers against the Falcons at Atlanta Sunday and George Mira, the reserve signal-caller who directed the team to last Sunday's startling 21-20 upset over Green Bay is sore "Not at the coach, but at conditions."

He said yesterday: "I'd like to start. If I get the chance to go in the game I'll give it hell. Yes, I did make some mistakes against Green Bay. But I've said it before and I'll say it again: You can't iron out the mistakes in practice. You have to play to improve your timing. I never hold grudges and it certainly is not a personal thing between Chris and me. If I didn't respect him I wouldn't be playing for him."

Days Of Wine And Risotto At Marin Golf Carnevale Sunday

GARLIC GOLF: Sunday is the day Marin Country Club in Novato becomes Little Italy for 24 hours.

There'll be more paisani romping around the greensward than you can shake a salami at in an athletic version of The Days of Wine and Risotto starring V. L. Scaloppine and Chick N. Cacciatora.

This is not a menu; it's a tournament—the Marin club's sixth annual Golf Carnevale in which more than 100 garlic snappers and adopted Sons of Italy compete in 18 holes of par-boiled pandemonium sprinkled generously with parmesan. Pass the gnocchi, please.

EVERYONE DRESSES up in the craziest costumes imaginable—preferably of Italian motif—and it's all in charitable fun for the benefit of Orphans of Italy, the Neurologically Handicapped, St. Vincent's School for Boys and Little Old Winemakers everywhere.

Prizes are for lowest score, reddest eyeballs and last one under the table. Strictly stag, it is handicap tournament, meaning that when the contestants arrive home that night they get six strokes from the old lady. I think they call this Blind Bogey.

TO ENTER, you needn't have purple feet, nor must your surname end in a vowel, but it sure as hell helps. The entry list looks like a Chicago police blotter, 1929 circa. One foursome consists of Jim Regalia, Frank Carbone, Ed Bettini and Frank Sampietro, followed by Scoop Spumone.

Another appetizing group includes Mario Colombo, John Mangini, Gene Zampatti and Al Colombo, who is going to bring along his Auntie Pasta.

THERE ARE, of course, some ringers. Dig this foursome: Ed Goldstein, Bob Goldstein, Syd Cohen and Carlos Morales. And then there is this mixed up quartet of Tom Lococo, A. V. Paturzo, Mel Sartoria and—John Hourihan. Mama Mia and Mother Macree—ravioli and corned beef, yet!

ODDS-ON favorites to stagger off with the best costume award for the fourth time in six years are the Brothers Nave of local bowling fame—Bill Jr., Bob and Rich, accompanied by Raymond Amonini who looks like Cesar Romero and may come posed as a gubernatorial candidate.

The Nave-Amonini group once came dressed as Italian space-a-men and arrived in a helicopter. Top THAT!

THE FIRST year they were Roman gladiators. Last year they were Egyptian mummies, bound from head to toe and laid out in coffins. When smoke bombs signalled their arrival, they slowly came to life and scared hell out of every little kid in Northern Marin. And some big kids, too.

One year the Nave quartet dressed as Italian cavemen (now I ask you!) and rode 18 holes on the back of a 60-foot long papier mache dinosaur. A prehysterical theme.

THEN THERE was the memorable day that the Naves posed as Monks and brought along Bob Nave's donkey, Jerome, to tote the wine. Poor Jerome survived the 18-hole ordeal and then was led into the bar for "one for the road." His mere presence shocked 28 guys into going on the wagon. But the bartender served Jerome a dry martini, figuring he was another Nave.

IF YOU think I'm kidding when I say Marin Country Club will become one great big wild bowl of lasagne on Sunday, just visit the fashionable golf course area and see for yourself that contrary to history, Roma WAS spilt in a day.

Would you believe Dago red greens?

Signed,
Gimi Gilmartini

U.S. Swim Supremacy Challenged

By WILL GRIMSLEY

MEXICO CITY (AP) — "Watch out for the French in 1968."

This was the warning of the favored Americans as the swimming and diving competition entered its second day today in the so-called Little Olympics.

"The French have a very impressive team here and indicate they will be out to grab their share of medals in the 1968 Gabes," said Harry Hainsworth, director of swimming and diving for the U.S. Amateur Athletic Union.

"Christine Caron is a superb backstroke swimmer, certainly one of the best — if not the best — in the world. Alain Mosconi has shown he is going to be tough in the individual medley.

"Other countries, in fact, are taking the tip from the United States and concentrating on their youngsters. We will be strong here two years from now, stronger than at Tokyo, but other countries, particularly France, will be strong, too."

The Americans, who dominated the Tokyo water lanes by winning 14 of the 20 gold medals in swimming and diving in the 1964 Olympics, had to share honors with the French in the Zacatenco Pool here yesterday.

The French won two gold medals and a silver. The United States collected two golds, two silvers and a bronze.

American winners were Charles Hickox of Phoenix, Ariz., in the men's 100 meter freestyle, :56.1, and 16-year-old Claudia Kolb of Sunnyvale, Calif., with 10:20.3 in the women's 800 meter freestyle.

Lee Davis, a former Philadelphia girl now living in Fremont, Calif., was a double medalist-getting a silver in the women's 100 meter butterfly and a bronze in the 800 freestyle. Kenneth Weeb of Portland, Ore., was second in the men's 400 meter medley, won by Mosconi in 5:09.5, a Mexican record.

The 18-year-old Miss Caron, who has Mexico's pulse pounding as if she were Brigette Bardot, won the women's 100 meter backstroke in 1:09.9. Nel Bos of Holland captured the women's 100 meter butterfly in 1:09.7, turning the table on Miss Davis who beat her in the qualifying heats.

A graceful Czech, Vera Caslasska, won all-around honors in women's gymnastics, with Natalia Kuchinskaya of Russia second and Evelyne Letourneur of France third.

Galina Goroskova of the Soviet Union successfully defended her individual foil championship in fencing. Second went to Iatiana Zamusenko of Russia and third to Elizabieta Cymerman of Poland.

Frenchmen led the yachting competition in Acapulco. Gerald de Villard was top in Finn class, J.C.Z. de Bokay in Star class and Alain Draeger in Flying Dutchman.

Wildlife Meeting Scheduled Sunday

There will be a meeting of Region II of the California Wildlife Federation at Oakmont, Santa Rosa Sunday.

Region II extends from Mendocino County through Santa Cruz County and from the Nevada line to the Pacific Ocean.

Julius Von Nostitz, California Wildlife Federation president, is expected to attend the meeting. All outdoor oriented organizations are encouraged to attend. The meeting starts at 10 a.m.

ANOTHER IMPORTED KICKER

WAVES ON THE COKES

Stormy Sahara Tournament Blows Pro Scores Sky High

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The weather again held the key to the $100,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament today as golf professionals hoped for a relative degree of calm weather in the third round of play.

Leading the way toward the 54-hole phase of the event was an unheralded California professional, Bob McCallister, with a score of 145.

The forecast called for moderate winds at the par 36-35—71 Paradise Valley Country Club after yesterday's havoc—a desert blast that reached 52 miles per hour at one stage, with very little letup during the entire day.

Scores zoomed as high as 98 for one poor wretch, Jerry Dugan, of Omaha, Neb., and McCallister's 74, three-over-par, was the lowest of the day.

"This is the first time I ever drank a Coke that had waves in the cup," cracked McCalister, a Southern California PGA champion and a club pro at Corona.

"It was terrible," said Nicklaus, who had to laugh at his frustrations. "Every time you get into weather like this you think it's the worst, but this was the worst I ever played in."

To Palmer, who weathered rain, cold and wind in England, it was nothing like he had ever encountered in this country," he said.

Nicklaus said he tried to hit "quail-high" drives—low to the ground. He parred every hole except one on the front nine, but four bogies and one double bogey killed him on the back side. He carded but one birdie the first two days.

Palmer? Six bogeys, two double bogeys and one birdie.

SPENCER VS. JONES

Heavies Mix Tonight At Palace; Winner Vs. Clay?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)-Ranking heavyweight boxers Thad Spencer of San Francisco and Doug Jones of New York battle tonight in a fight which could determine if either ever gets a shot at the championship.

Spencer wants his first shot at Cassius Clay. Jones wants his second one, still claiming he outpointed the champion in a 10-rounder before Clay gained the title.

Scheduled for 10 rounds at the Cow Palace, the bout matches boxers who each have won 29 times. Jones, however, has had a shot at the light heavyweight title and at Ernie Terrell who wears the World Boxing Assn.'s version of the heavyweight crown. Both outpointed him.

"I feel I'm in good enough shape to beat him," says Jones about Spencer. "I came here to win."

He speaks less of a title fight

Bulldog-Trojan Crucial Tonight

By GARY TISCHLER

The round robin comes home to roost tonight. Terra Linda and San Rafael, two teams that have parlayed shutout stompings over Marin Catholic and Redwood into a share of the Marin Athletic League football lead, match their distinctive talents in the season's first "key" game, 8 o'clock, at San Rafael.

The game is taking on the nature of a classic battle. It will be San Rafael's rat-a-tat, slam-bang pass and pass attack against the Trojans' ball-control grit 'em and grind 'em ground attack and stifling defense that has withstood both passing and running games.

Both teams have won their league encounters by shutouts and if you think that comparative scores are as good as money, then San Rafael ought to be favored. The Bulldogs mowed down Redwood, 18-0 and Marin Catholic 32-0 while the Trojans whipped both teams by identical 13-0 scores.

But scores can be misleading and in Terra Linda, quarterback Bill Joost and San Rafael's little line faces its sternest test. The Trojans put on a highly effective pass rush, which has resulted in nine interceptions in the past three games.

The Trojans have been just as solid against a running attack, although Redwood was able to move consistently against Terra Linda until the chips were down. And there, the Trojans played up to the old bit about when the going gets tough, the tough get going.

San Rafael's defense is nothing to be laughed off. Those eight straight gooseggs signifying scoreless quarters mean strictly business. But the Bulldogs are best with their backs to the wall and that can be pushing a good thing too much.

Both teams have a number of talented personnel to watch. On offense the Bulldogs offer Joost who has completed and thrown more passes than any quarterback in the league unless it's a sideline quarterback. Joost has thrown 100 times, hit on 51 for four touchdowns and 553 yards. Most of the passes have been speared by Sam Crowell, a small, quick end with enough moves to play dodge car without a car. He's caught 25 passes, tops in the league, for 403 yards and four touchdowns. Larry Nelson is the Bulldogs' chief hope to get its running attack in gear, along with Joost.

On defense, the stars are diminutive but tough. Chief threats are defensive end Frank Pandiani and tackle Steve Dillman.

Halfback Paul Lee, a weaver and bobber who can thread his way through a line like Fred Astaire in pads, is the Trojans' major but not only threat on offense. He leads the MCAL in rushing. Quarterback Chris Bowman is a fast improving, poised signal caller who lately has been throwing more and hitting more. And behind him are Rich and Rod Jones a pair of quick-hitting twin runners at halfback and fullback.

Jim Shirbert, a 193-pound linebacker, Tom Heacox, a quick and powerful 234-pound defensive tackle and Bruce Kilby, a 178-pound defensive end lead the way on defense.

"Naturally, we'll have to be sharp on pass defense," Trojan coach Brad Squires said. "But we've been doing a good job on that. San Rafael will without a doubt be the best passing team we've faced yet."

"They kind of worry me with that big rush they put on," San Rafael coach Bob Muster said. "We live and die by the pass and I'm not ashamed to admit it. But we'll try to run and if we can't run we'll be passing, of course."

Drake Faces Rugged Riordan '11' Tomorrow

Nobody can accuse Drake High School of padding its practice football schedule. It is strictly rocky.

First there was usually stong Petaluma, whom the Pirates handled, 25-13. Then came powerful Vallejo, which the Pirates did not handle so well in a 13-32 defeat.

And tomorrow at College of Marin Stadium at 1:30 p.m. it will be Riordan of San Francisco, the team that handed otherwise perfect Tamalpais its only loss, 36-24.

But Pirate coach Bob Franceschini won't have to worry about his sorely tested pass defense being tried so strongly again. Riordan is primarily a pedestrian team, preferring to stick close to mother earth on its frequent touchdown drives. But it's not done at a walking pace, as the Crusaders' undefeated record indicates.

"They run the wing-T," Franceschini said. "They like to control the the ball at four or five yards a try and they like to run off tackle."

Redwood Cagers Win

Redwood High School Class "C" basketball team handed Tamalpais its fourth straight Marin Athletic League loss yesterday, 32-21.

Wes Mock of Redwood led the scoring with 12 points.

Marin Tars Seek 3rd Straight Win

Fresh off their greatest aerial show in recent years, the College of Marin Tars will be gunning for their third straight 1966 football triumph tonight when they play the San Francisco State College junior varsity at Kentfield, 8 o'clock.

Marin coach Dick Read will stick with the same unit that last week buried Moffett Field 47-12 under a devastating passing attack that accounted for 298 yards.

That was led by quarterback Al Simontacchi, the ex-Drake High star, and former Tam standout Honor Jackson. Simontacchi completed 15 of 25 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns last week while Jackson caught 5 for 100 yards and a pair of TD's.

"That was the best passing performance we've had in my six years at Marin," Read said. Also contributing to the big win were reserve quarterback Jim Griffith, who completed 4 of 5 passes for 50 yards, end Joe Cunningham, who caught 4 for 44 yards and a TD, and the running of Dick Otis and Don Smith. Otis, the former Novato All-Leaguer, carried 6 times for 29 yards and Smith 4 for 26.

Read said San Francisco State's squad will be a mixture of fourth-string varsity players and regular jayvees.

The Tar starting backfield, which attacks from the double wing-T formation, will be Simontacchi at quarter, Otis and Smith or Horace White at halves and Joe DeMasi at full.

Jackson and Cunningham will man the end posts with Rick Gifford and Bob Unruh at tackles, Chuck Hahn and Bob Washington at guards and Loren Swaney center.

than does Spencer who lost his California crown six weeks ago to Sacramento's Bill McMurray in a fight that was stopped. Spencer claimed the referee and doctor acted in haste and the cut he suffered was not serious.

Spencer feels this must be his biggest fight to date, saying, 'After this one, I'll be bigger than I ever was in my life. This fight will bring me closed to the world championship."

Jones doesn't seem at all sure that Clay wants to fight him.

"Making money is the biggest part of this boxing for me," Doug explains. "I thought I would get a title fight, but now I don't know."

Spencer has stopped 16 foes and Jones 19.

First preliminary bout starts at 8:30 o'clock.

High-Flying Tam Indians Invade Novato Tomorrow

If football teams could fly, Tamalpais would be one of the first to take off — self propelled.

The Indians have bombed three straight opponents into visible wrecks closely resembling Hiroshima behind a rain of passes that has resulted in the most explosive offense in the Marin County Athletic League.

Now defunct Don Mackin and present quarterback Steve Woodward have combined for 41 completions in 84 throws, with a net effect of 834 yards and 11 touchdowns. To this can be thrown a 30-yard scoring pass by sub quarterback Homer Hall and a running game that simply can't be ignored. Not with a thundering pack of backs that includes Mike Fowler, Kirk Sparks, Larry Adams and Reggie Walker, for starters.

And then there is Mike Biber, who in just four games has caught 505 yards worth of passes for a steady eight touchdowns.

That is what Novato is up against tomorrow on the Hornets' home grounds, 2 p.m.

"We have to win this one," Novato coach Al Scott said of his defending MCAL champs. The Hornets have already dropped one loop contest to Drake, by a 14-20 count, with two late touchdown passes doing them in.

In Harold Fain, Novato has a boy who likes to throw a little himself. And Fain, if not quite as spectacular, is stubbornly consistent. He's hit on 35 of 64 attempts for 54.7 per cent, not a bad average for a growing boy. Even a certain millionaire hasn't been that accurate. And it's the best percentage in the league, just a step ahead of Woodward (50 per cent) and Bill Joost of San Rafael (50.1).

In Frank Perachiotti, Fain has an excellent receiver who doubles as a churning running back. Halfback Paul Bresnan was held to 48 yards against Drake but has done better.

Tam coach Willie Hector can see two things happening.

"We could be down and they could be up and knock us off," he said. "But if we play like we usually do, it shouldn't happen.

"Actually, we only gave up one touchdown to Ukiah," he said. "They got one on a fluke play and the other was scored on our subs. So I think our first team will do all right."

BEARS OVER PACKERS, 49ERS OVER FALCONS

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Can the St. Louis Cardinals handle high-scoring Dallas? Will Green Bay bounce back from defeat in its traditional struggle with the Chicago Bears? Can Pete Gogolak outkick brother Charlie when the New York Giants face the Washington Redskins?

Little problems like these make it the toughest week of the season for the pro pickers. Toss in the Buffalo Bills' desperate stand against San Diego and you have a rugged weekend in both major pro leagues.

Despite the Packers, Colts and Bills, the old hand picker got through the World Series weekend with 8-3 and stands 43-12-3 for the season. Things are bound to get worse but let's take another whirl with all 11-games to be played Sunday afternoon.

NFL

Dallas 31, St. Louis 19—Largest crowd ever in St. Louis pro history will turn out for battle of only unbeaten, untied teams in pro ball. Cards have defense to test Cowboys' hot attack. Don Meredith will get the big rush but Bob Hayes will be too much for Abe Woodson. Cards can't wait for second half this time.

Chicago 14, Green Bay 13—A real blood battle, 95th of a long series. Bears hit stride last week and can't afford a third loss. Gale Sayers back on the beam. Vince Lombardi will have Packers sky high for renewal of old feud, especially after 13-10 loss in exhibition. Field goal could decide it.

Los Angeles 20, Minnesota 17—Rams on road for second of three-week trip and Vikings coming off a bye. Doubtful status of Tommy Mason and erratic start of Francis Tarkenton give edge to Rams on their tight defense. Bruce Gossett and Fred Cox will be busy.

Baltimore 20, Detroit 7—If Colts can't handle Lions they had better forget title hopes. Baltimore won exhibition 20-0 but Lions are better now. John Unitas overdue for a big day and Colt ball hawks should zoom in on Milt Plum.

Washington 27, New York 20—Kid brother Charlie to top Pete in battle of gogo Gogolaks. Sonny Jurgensen hitting Bobby Mitchell and Giants still wobbly on defense. If Charley Taylor can't play Redskins will be hurting. Ex-Giants Sam Huff, Joe Don Looney, Steve Thurlow and Jim Carroll anxious to show Allie Sherman he made a mistake.

Philadelphia 24, Pittsburgh 14—Eagles not as bad as the Cardinals and Cowboys made them look. Both teams vulnerable to air attack. Timmy Brown and Pete Retzlaff give Eagles edge.

San Francisco 27, Atlanta 14—The 49ers upended the Packers last week. Forget that 24-17 loss to Falcons in exhibition. Either John Brodie or George Mira should find Atlanta defense a soft touch.

Cleveland draws the bye.

AFL

Kansas City 28, Oakland 14—Chiefs march on while Raiders continue to stagger. Lenny Dawson has 13 touchdown passes and Bert Coan and Mike Garrett to move the ball. Kansas City won first meeting in a breeze 32-10.

New York 24, Houston 20—Don't expect another 52-13 rout like the one at Shea Stadium. Jets are ripe to be had. But nobody has dumped Joe Namath yet and the Jets' pass protection doesn't figure to collapse against Oilers. George Blanda interceptions will be decisive factor.

San Diego 28, Buffalo 21—Afraid of this one. Chargers blew many chances against Jets last week and Bills are desperate with 3-3 record. Another defeat could practically knock them out of the race. San Diego beat Buffalo in season opener 27-7 but it could be a lot closer.

Denver 21, Miami 14—Somebody has to win this battle of cellar teams. Denver has played better ball under new coach and they did shade Houston. Dolphins go down for the sixth time but anything can happen in this one.

Boston has the bye.

BOWLING LEADERS

Bob Alvarado Fires 606 Greenbrae Mark

Bob Alvarado of San Anselmo, a San Francisco meat cutter, was high bowler of the week at Greenbrae Lanes with a 606 series headed by a 227 game in the Northern California Merchants League.

Frank Clark had high four-game series, 785 in the 525 Masters, and Ernie Mazet had high game, 238 in the Northern California Merchants.

For the women, Lois Schwab had high four-game series, 751 in the 525 Masters; Rosey Corbin had top three-game set, 523 in the Coffee Cuppers, and Peg McMurtry high game, 219 in the Tavernettes.

'Slip' Madigan Laid To Rest

Among the hundreds who attended the last rites were Notre Dame Athletic Director Moose Krause, Forty Niner scout Pappy Waldorf, and San Francisco Mayor John F. Shelley.

Sixth 'C' Cage Win

Novato's "C" basketball team kept its record at a perfect 6-0 by nipping Terra Linda, 40-38, at Terra Linda Thursday. Gary Howard scored 15 points for the winners and Dave Gorman added nine points.

Western Hockey Starts

SEATTLE (AP) — Flip the calendar ahead to May, 1967, and many Western Hockey League experts predict you'll be seeing a replay of the 1966 Lester Patrick Cup series.

Victoria's Maple Leafs wrested the cup from the Portland Buckaroos four games to three last spring and the two teams have been tabbed the clubs to beat this season.

The seven-team league with the seven-league look opens its 19th season tonight when Vancouver, the northernmost squad, welcomes back San Diego, the southern anchor, after an absence of 16 years.

The other opening night game pits Seattle's Totems against the Los Angeles Blades. The preseason favorites see action Saturday when the California Seals—the San Francisco - Oakland entry—move into Victoria and the Blades skate against the Buckaroos at Portland.

NEW FACES

Experience tips the scale in favor of the Leafs and Bucks although there are plenty of new faces and familiar faces in new places willing to dispute the oddsmakers.

Coach Rudy Pilous, scheduled to lead the California Seals until mid-November when Charlie Burns is expected to take over, faces the same opening-season blues. The Seals hit the road for 10 games while Oakland's 13,000-seat sports complex is being readied. They have acquired Jean Guy Morissette to help Jack McCartan in the nets, but have lost Wayne Connelly, their leading scorer last season. The big question seems to be how well the veterans they have assembled will mesh as a unit.

LOS ANGELES—Armando Ramos, 133, Long Beach, Calif., knocked out Allen Syers, 133, England, 5; Jesse Armenta, 160, Obregon, Mex., and Charlie ames, 160½, Los Angeles, drew, 10.

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—Alton Colter, 129, Phoenix, Ariz., outpointed Rodolfo Gonzalez, 128, Long Beach, Calif., 10.

PORTLAND, Maine—Peter Ricciteli, Portland, Maine, knocked out Sonny Moore, Hempstead, N.Y., 4, heavyweights.

Trojans Invade Stanford; Cal Treks To Washington

STANFORD (AP)—Favorites in four, winners of two, the Stanford Indians find themselves in an underdog role for the first time this season when they meet the invasion of Southern California's undefeated Trojans.

Their Pacific-8 battle highlights a West Coast schedule which also finds California facing Washington at Seattle, Oregon at the Air Force, Idaho at Oregon State, Washington State at Utah, San Diego State at San Jose State and Montana at University of the Pacific.

Upset by Oregon 7-3 last week the Indians hope the return of flanker Bob Blunt will boost the effectiveness of their attack.

On the other hand, quarterback Gene Washington has been hampered by a sore knee.

Southern California, co-favorite with UCLA in this Pacific-8 and Rose Bowl race, will have its quarterback, Troy Winslow, ready. He suffered a concussion last week in the first quarter of a Washington game the Trojans eventually won 17-14.

Hopes of aerial success for Stanford must take into account one of the nation's top secondary defenders, Nate Shaw. The All Conference performer of 1965 has intercepted four passes and in all, USC has yielded only 23 points to its opponents—Texas, Wisconsin, Oregon State and Washington.

Although the Trojans run more than they pass, Winslow has the ability to keep opposing defenses from stacking against the rushes. He has hit 37 of 65 throws for 466 yards and two touchdowns.

On the other hand, Washington has hit 25 of 70 for 364 and four tallies.

Southern California must guard against halfback passes since Lewis played quarterback last year and threw more than he ran. He's only thrown four times this season, but hit on two of them.

The kickoff is slated for 1:30 p.m.

UCLA's 27-24 squeaker over Rice dropped the Bruins into the No. 4 spot in the national Associated Press poll after they had held the No. 2 position. They hope to gain increased prestige against Penn State.

Washington rates a heavy favorite against an in-and-out California club which lost to San Jose 24-0. Still, the Huskies don't have a passer in the class with the Spartan's Danny Holman, back-of-the-week for his performance against the Bears.

Penn State invades Los Angeles with a 2-2 record, victories over Boston College and Maryland and losses to top ranked Michigan State and Army.

California must stop a new Washington combination—quarterback Tom Sparlin passing to sophomore halfback Jim Cope. The duo clicked for the two touchdowns against USC.

After beating Stanford, Oregon again will be the underdog at the Air Force. San Jose State also may have troubles against San Diego State which is undefeated against college division opposition.

SPORTS BRIEFS

A.P. Honors To Cepeda

NEW YORK (AP) — Orlando Cepeda, the slugging first baseman who increased his batting production after being traded from San Francisco to St. Louis, was named the National League's Comeback Player-of the-year for 1966 Friday.

The 29-year-old native of Puerto Rico collected 88 votes in the annual Associated Press poll of baseball writers. Relief pitcher Phil Regan of Los Angeles was second with 76 while outfielder Matty Alou of Pittsburgh, the circuit's batting champion, was third. Alou polled 64 votes in the balloting by 312 writers. (Cepeda received a similar honor yesterday in the United Press International poll.)

Gaylord Perry, San Francisco pitcher, was fourth in the balloting with 43 votes. Then came Tommy Davis of Los Angeles, 12 votes; Felipe Alou, Atlanta, Matty's brother, 11, and Vern Law, Pittsburgh, 10.

Redwood Teachers Home From Travel

By CYNTHIA INMAN

Redwood High School student

Adjusting to a new cultural environment, studying at a foreign university and a visit to European schools were a few of the experiences of four Redwood High School teachers living abroad.

Latin teacher Robert Kuehnl returned to Redwood after a year's sabbatical leave in Greece. He lived in Athens but traveled to the Grecian Islands and historical cities such as Corinth.

In Greece, Kuehnl found the people very warm and friendly. They were "honored to have a foreign visitor" and he "became part of the family," he related.

He noted that many things Americans take for granted are not available to the Greeks — items such as electricity, running water, and meat on the daily table.

The Greek people are not concerned about working for a second car or swimming pool, but about providing the necessities such as food and clothing to their families.

"It was more like living in the past," said Kuehnl.

French teacher Robert Mautner spent a year studying at the University of Paris. He took courses in literature, history, philosophy, rhetoric and a program in pedagogy in which he learned new teaching methods. The second semester he attended the National Institute of Phonetics.

Mautner found his stay a "tremendously valuable" personal experience as well as an educational one, including French art and literature.

While studying at the university he lived at the International Student Center where he was able to exchange views with people of differing nationalities.

Although he found that European and American students are taught similarily, he returned with many new ideas.

French sudents, he related, have to study more intensely than do American students.

During his leave Mautner also visited Austria, Czechoslovakia, England, and the Scandinavian countries.

Also returning this fall was Mrs. Emma Wulzen, dean of girls. Leaving on March 1, Mrs. Wulzen and her husband sailed to Naples, and then travelled to Munich, and in the next three months logged 8,000 miles travelling by auto in Austria, Yugoslavia, Greece (where they visited Kuehnl) and Italy. From there they went by train to Switzerland, Germany the Netherlands and Paris (where they met Mr. Mautner).

During their trip they visited Redwood's sister school at Preetz, Germany, where they visited some classes and talked with two former exchange students.

Mrs. Beverly Concannon, French teacher, has also returned after marriage and a trip to France. Her stay in France gave her the opportunity to improve her French, visit the theaters, and taste the "magnificent French food".

Two Redwood High School teachers are on sabbatical leave this year. Fred Brommer, mathematics teacher, is studying advanced mathematics at California State Polytechnic College. Harry Davis, English teacher plans to study at the University of Southern Oregon.

Lawmakers 'Graded' By Organizations

Three national organizations have "graded" congressmen and U.S. senators on the basis of their votes on "key issues."

The organizations are Americans for Constitutional Action (ACA), a conservative group; Americans for Democratic Action (ADA), a liberal organization, and AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE).

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel got these percentage ratings: ACA 38, ADA 41, and COPE 49.

Sen. George L. Murphy: ACA 78, ADA 0, COPE 8.

Scouts Pay Tribute To Braverman

A nursery for native trees and shrubs in memory of Sidney Braverman, Marin County civic leader who died last January, will be dedicated Sunday at 1 p.m. at Camp Tamarancho, Boy Scout camp above Fairfax.

The Sidney Braverman Memorial Nursery honors his years of service to the youth of Marin and his contribution to charitable, cultural and civic organizations.

He was a director of the Marin Council of Boy Scouts and in 1954 was awarded the Silver Beaver for developing a trust fund for the council.

The nursery was established to raise and plant the native trees and shrubs in selected county sites for the "Project Scout Tree" conservation program. It was designed by Henry Cole and Thomas Cagwin. Funds were contributed by Braverman's friends and fellow members of the San Anselmo Rotary Club.

Turner To Be Host

Hugh E. Turner, president and general manager of KTIM, will welcome more than 125 radio and television executives to a two-day conference of the National Assn. of Broadcasters, starting Monday at the Mark Hopkins Hotel, San Francisco.

Ahtena, meaning ice people, is the name of an Athabascan tribe of North American Indians in the basin of Cooper River, Alaska.

Retirement Board Is Cautious On Lending

By RICHARD LYTTLE

The Marin County Retirement Board yesterday appeared to be growing more shy of lending retirement funds for public projects.

Such an arrangement has long been discussed, but never done in Marin. It takes only one dissenting vote on the retirement board to block such a loan. This vote was long held by former supervisor William D. Fusselman, no longer a member of the board.

Fusselman was replaced by Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, much in favor of retirement loans to public agencies. Such loans to finance development of a golf course in Corte Madera, a Marin County airport, and the Novato Civic Center have been discussed.

Yesterday the Tamalpais Fire Protection District board, in a letter to the retirement board, asked if money would be available to finance construction of a new fire station and improvements to the water system.

Retirement board members said they would have to know more details of the plan. Board member Marion H. Marks said: "I feel a little more strongly all the time that we shouldn't get into this.

"We are looking on the one hand for high interest rates and they on the other hand are looking for low costs. This is a funny way to put it, but it's hard to keep the left hand and the right hand at arm's length. It's almost impossible to make an arm's length deal."

Chicago Having Big Mail Jam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department has dispatched a team of 15 experts to Chicago to try to break up a massive jam which it says has caused delays of as much as 10 days in the delivery of mail.

The department acknowledged the postal pileup following reports that some Midwestern and Southern post offices were handling unusually large volumes of mail.

But a spokesman said most of the delayed mail has been third class — advertisements and circulars. He said delays in first class mail have not been significant.

Marin Clubs Set Foreign Student Day At College

Some 185 foreign students in Marin will be guests of College of Marin's International Relations Club Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

The occasion is the third annual International Students' Day, sponsored by the San Rafael Rotary Club, St. John's Hospitality Guild and the Marin chapters of the American Red Cross, American Assn. of the United Nations and American Assn. of University Women.

Each student will be introduced to a "family for the day," which will provide a picnic lunch. In addition to the picnic, swimming, volleyball, badminton and ping-pong will be offered.

Foreign students are expected from College of Marin, Dominican College, San Francisco Theological Seminary, Golden Gate Theological Seminary and Marin high schools.

In the Southern Kolar gold fields of India, you can go 10,600 feet into the earth, or seven times farther down than the Empire State Building soars upward, the Government of India Tourist Office reports.

Brown Wanting Action On Gold

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown urged Congress yesterday to speed up action on legislation aimed at encouraging exploration for gold.

The governor's office said he sent a telegram to Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., asking "early and favorable action on this important legislation."

Brown said the measure by Sen. Thomas Kuchel, R - Calif., and the companion House bill by Rep. Harold T. Johnson, D-Calif., would help get California's lagging gold industry back into business.

When it is breakfast time in New York, it is mid-afternoon in Turkey.
